RUSSIANS SAIL; BATTLE HEARD

Noise of Heavy Cannonading Reaches Saigon from Out at Sea.

VESSELS OFF MANILA

Supposed to Be Japanese Ships Awaiting Arrival of the Squadron of Kamimura.

AMERICAN ADMIRAL ACTIVE

[Associated Press Cable to The Gazette.]

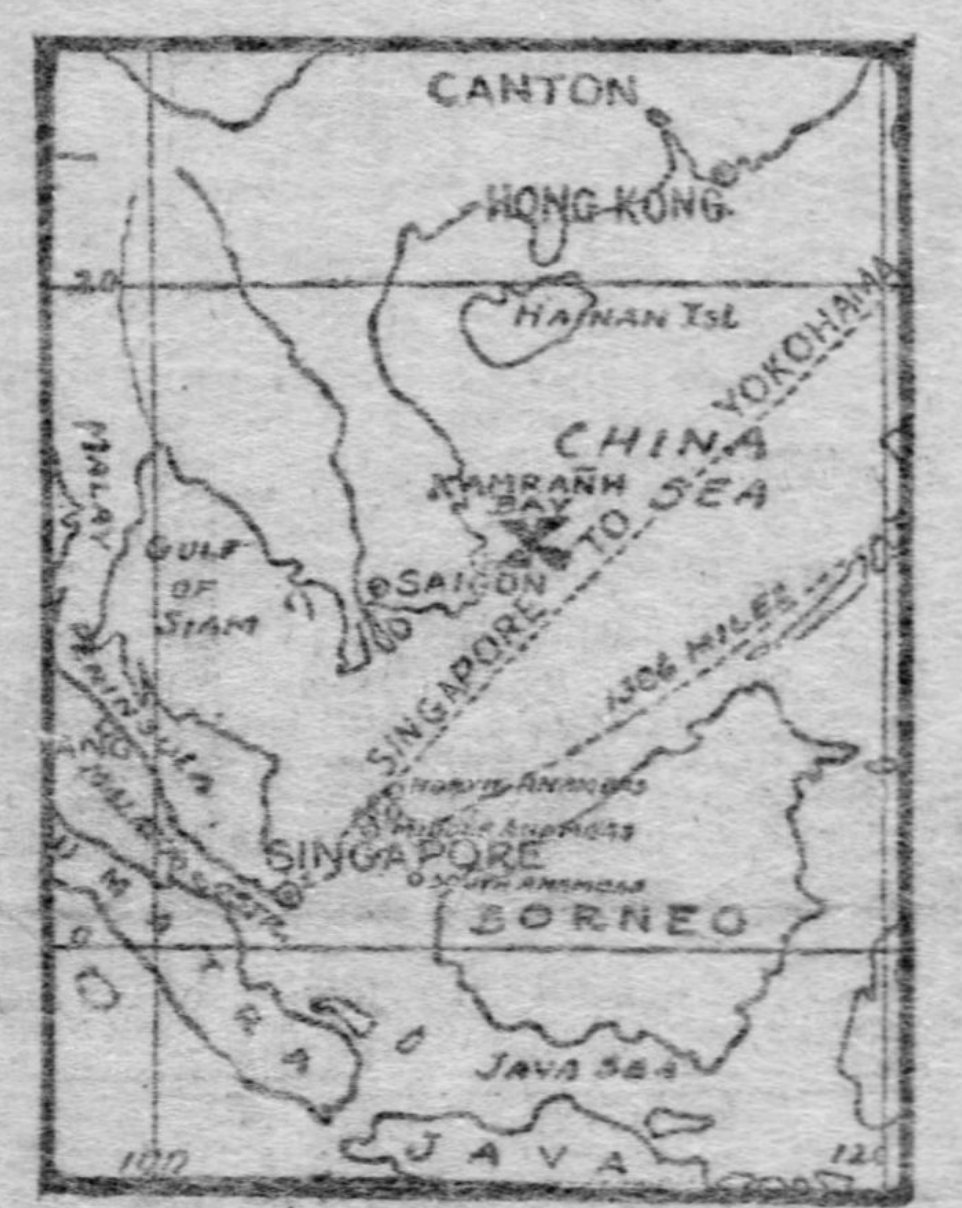
SAIGON, FRENCH COCHIN CHINA, April 23.—The complete Russian fleet left Kamranh bay on April 22 at midday. At night heavy cannonading was heard out at sea. It is supposed the Russian fleet was engaged with a portion of the Japanese squadron.

Before the departure of the squadron Vice Admiral Rojestvensky visited Admiral Jonquieres. No Russian officer or sailor landed from the fleet in Kamranh bay. They had expected Nebogatoff's detachment of the squadron to arrive at any moment.

No news has been received here of the Russian squadron since it left Kahranh yesterday. The officers and men of the Russian fleet have expressed themselves as confident of their ability to meet any situation which may arise. It is stated Admiral Rojestvensky is suffering from dysentery.

MANILA, April 23.—Three warships are now off Corregidor island. It is supposed here they are Japanese vessels, and Japanese Consul Marita Gori is hourly expecting the arrival of Vice Admiral Kamimura.

PARIS, April 23.—The minister of colonies officially confirms the report of the departure of the Russian squadron from Kamranh bay. The Russian admiral, previous to his departure, called on Admiral Jonquieres. The meeting of the two admirals was most cordial. A dispatch from Saigon to the Temps says the fleet opened fire when outside the bay, perhaps on Japanese advance guard.



Scene of Newest Developments Concerning Rojestvensky's Fleet.

The Russian transports Kiel, Jupiter, Kniaz Gortschakoff and Kitai are still at Saigon.

LONDON, April 24.—A dispatch from Manila, April 22, to the Daily Mail says:

"Vice Admiral Togo's fleet will assemble south of Formosa on April 26. The Japanese consul here has received a long cipher message concerning Kamimura's squadron, which is expected tomorrow (Sunday). The consul says the ships will not enter Manila harbor, but will cruise outside.

"There is great official activity here. The American admiral, the Japanese consul and the general in command have held conferences. The admiral on Monday will confer with Gov.-Gen. Wright."

The correspondent at Saigon of the Daily Mail, under date of April 22, states the Russian squadron is short of stores and that French and German ships are leaving Saigon almost daily with huge supplies and dispatches, and that other steamers are being chartered for the same purpose.

"Saigon," the correspondent adds, "is reaping a big harvest. I believe that a portion of the Russian squadron will meet the Japanese, while the rest of the vessels make a detour to reach Vladivostok."

RUSSIANS ARE REPULSED.

Cavalry Makes Futile Attack on Kingscheng—Few Skirmishes at Talou.

TOKYO, April 23.—It is officially announced that a force holding Tunghwa has reported that a small body of Russians is still staying at Laolin and Maloukou, 20 miles from Tunghwa. The enemy's cavalry, 100 strong, attempted an attack on April 20 against Kingscheng, but was repulsed.

Russian guards at Talou are increasing in strength. Thus far they have shewn no activity and there have been no exchanges with the exception of cavalry skirmishes.

RUSSIAN SQUADRON MAY COAL IN CHINESE WATERS

LONDON, April 24.—Beyond the report from Kamranh bay that the Russian second Pacific squadron proceeded northward, there is no further news of any kind nor confirmation of the reported firing. There have been rumors that a portion of Rojestvensky's squadron was at Hainan. If these rumors are true it is supposed the squadron may reassemble there and endeavor in Chinese waters to continue coaling and other preparations.

England Shaken by Earthquake.

LONDON, April 23.—An earthquake lasting several seconds and occasioning much alarm, was felt this morning throughout Derbyshire and Yorkshire and in adjacent districts. There was damage to walls and roofs, but nothing serious is yet reported.

1—Churchgoers thronged about the new First Presbyterian church.
2—Worshipers entering Old Trinity.
3—In front of Old Trinity.
4—Many old families represented at the First Presbyterian church.

MOB ARMING WITH FLASKS OF VITRIOL

Jews Are Preparing to Defend Themselves Against Riots on Russian Easter.

REVOLUTIONISTS ARE ACTIVE

[Special Cable to The Gazette.]

ODESSA, April 23.—The air is full of anti-Jewish riots planned for Russian Easter next Sunday. The Jews in Odessa number 160,000 and are arming and preparing to defend themselves and their women, who in former riots were victims of brutalities. The mob is arming with flasks of vitriol. At Kishineff, with permission of the governor, the Jews are organizing themselves with armed bands to prevent violence on Russian Good Friday. The authorities at Odessa are bringing two regiments from Tiraspol, while the forces of gendarmes and Cossacks have been increased.

BENDERY, April 23.—The telegraph office here has refused to accept a telegram addressed to the committee of ministers at St. Petersburg, asking for action to relieve the position of Jews in this region.

TIFLIS, April 23.—During a big demonstration in the Georgian theater here tonight, the electric lamps were suddenly extinguished and in the darkness thousands of revolutionary proclamations were showered upon the audience, who shouted, "down with autocracy."

UFA, EASTERN RUSSIA, April 23.—As a meeting of the local doctors, called ostensibly to discuss the cholera epidemic, was about to pass illegal resolutions, the doors of the hall in which they had assembled were burst open and the chief of police, under orders from the governor of the province, cleared the hall.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 23.—The price of bread has trebled in Moscow as the result of the strike of 15,000 bakers. Only municipal ovens are working. It is feared that the struggle will be protracted, although the masters are willing to grant considerable concessions.

CHANCE OF MISSING THEM.

Russian Fleet Probably Did Not Get Orders Relating to Kamranh Bay.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 24.—Vice Admiral Rojestvensky continues his policy of strategic silence and has answered the admiralty's message of last Saturday, pointing out the position of the French government on neutrality regulations only by putting to sea, giving no intimation of his plans or destination.

Russian naval circles would not be surprised if it should develop that the squadron had been already two days or more on the way northward when the instructions were cabled to him and that the admiralty was aware of this when the message was sent asking the admiral to move outside the three-mile limit, if he happened to be in French waters.

A prominent naval officer here last night called the present stage of affairs "a game of naval hide and seek" and declared that the admiralty was justified in sending elusive dispatches, especially as there was reason to believe that one motive of Japan in pressing the question was the desire to learn the exact position of Rojestvensky's squadron.

LITTLE GIRL FALLS INTO BAPTISMAL FOUNT

WHEELING, W. VA., April 23.—(Special.)—At the close of services in the First Christian church this evening an 18-months-old daughter of Charles Conley fell into the baptismal fount and was rescued from drowning by her 8-year-old brother, Homer. About 30 persons were in the auditorium and there was intense excitement.

WILL INTERCEDE FOR HUSBAND'S MURDERER

BERLIN, April 23.—(Special cable.)—The Grand Duchess Sergius, according to her promise made to the murderer of her husband during her visit to his cell, will appeal to the czar to save him from the death penalty.

ACTION BY FRANCE PLEASING TO JAPAN

Tokyo Believes, However, Russian Admiral Stayed as Long as Necessary.

[Associated Press Cable to The Gazette.]

TOKYO, April 23.—The announcement that in response to Japanese representations, France has promised the expulsion of the Rusian second Pacific squadron from Kamranh bay and affirmed her determination "to maintain neutrality" is received here with pleasure and has relieved the tension of popular feeling, although it is believed that if Rojestvensky entered Kamranh bay for the purpose of finally preparing for a dash north the purpose was accomplished before he was ordered to leave.

The foreign office, in a statement issued today, says: "The French government, upon account of the report that the Baltic squadron had arrived at Kamranh bay, instructed the governor general of Indo-China to strictly enforce the rules of French neutrality. Subsequently the Japanese government lodged a protest with France and the French government issued new special instructions to the governor general for transmittal to the Russians, ordering them to leave French territorial waters as soon as possible. The governor general telegraphed, replying that he had taken the necessary measures according to instructions.

"The French government simultaneously addressed the Russian government asking that the admiral be instructed to leave French territorial waters. The Russian government replied that it had already sent such instruction. The French gave assurances that they had taken and would take in future necessary measures to see that neutrality is rigorously respected."

CONDITION, NOT A THEORY.

Woman Meets Strike Talk, With Story of Mortgaged House and Scarcity of Work.

WHEELING, W. VA., April 23.—(Special.)—There were only three women among the relatives of non-unionists who came from Pittsburgh this morning to spend Sunday with the men at the Whitaker mill. No person met them at the station and strikers showed the way to the mill and carried the baggage of the women, at the same time trying to prevail upon them to induce their husbands to return to Pittsburgh.

One of the women, who was accompanied by two children, told a story about a mortgaged home and scarcity of work, and talked so glibly that the strikers' pickets acknowledged themselves defeated in her case. The relatives returned to Pittsburgh tonight.

Massacre of Officials Reported.

LONDON, April 23.—Special correspondents at Shanghai give an unconfirmed Chinese report that Fen Chuen, the imperial commissioner to Tibet, with his whole retinue has been massacred by Tibetans at Batang.

KITTANNING WOMAN KIDNAPS HER CHILD

Wife of Pittsburgher Takes Boy from Guardian in Front of Church.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

KITTANNING, April 23.—A sensational kidnaping occurred in front of St. Paul's Episcopal church here this afternoon, when Mrs. Harry McKenna kidnaped her 6-year-old child from Mrs. Hilton, of Wickboro, into whose custody the child had been given. Mr. McKenna has been working in Pittsburgh in a furniture store as a bill collector.

The child was taken from Mrs. McKenna's parents and placed in charge of Mrs. Hilton of Wickboro. This afternoon Mrs. Hilton brought the child in to attend the children's choral service in the St. Paul's Episcopal church. Mrs. McKenna apparently knew of her intention of bringing the child to church, for when the services were ended, Mrs. McKenna was standing outside the church on the pavement. Mrs. Hilton walked from the church with her charge, but was not holding the child's hand. She did not notice Mrs. McKenna standing by. The mother quickly picked him up and started down the street. Her quick action took Mrs. Hilton unawares and no pursuit was made. Mrs. McKenna took her child to her home, about a mile south of Kittanning.

This evening Sheriff E. Cochran and Constable J. O. Crum went to the McKenna home and forcibly took possession of the boy, and carried him to the home of Judge Patton. The judge ordered the child returned to the home of Mrs. Hilton, which was done tonight. None of the persons concerned will explain why the child was taken away from Mrs. McKenna and placed in Mrs. Hilton's charge.

CHINATOWN IS RAIDED.

Large Number of Gamblers Are Captured and Placed in New York Station Houses.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Fourteen coaches filled with policemen and headed by personal representatives of Police Commissioner McAdoo swept unannounced into Chinatown from the Bowery tonight and when their work was done, nine places in Mott street, two in Pell street and one in Doyers street had been raided and upward of 300 Chinamen had been hurried away in patrol wagons, in 'busses and on foot to all the downtown station houses.

The quarter was filled with an unusually large crowd of sightseers who became much excited, but they were quickly assured the operations of the police were to be confined to the Chinese gamblers.

President Eliot Coming Here.

BOSTON, April 23.—(Special.)—Jerome D. Green, private secretary, announced tonight that President Eliot would attend and make an address at a dinner of the Harvard club of Pittsburgh on May 29.

ACTOR JEFFERSON DIES IN FLORIDA

Finally Succumbs to Illness. Some Members of His Family Present.

HIS LIFE IS SPENT ON STAGE

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

WEST PALM BEACH, FLA., April 23.—Joseph Jefferson died after being unconscious all day, at 6:15 o'clock this evening. At his bedside were his wife and two of his sons, Charles B. and Frank Jefferson, Mrs. Nellie Symons, his nurse, Miss Mabel Bingham, Dr. R. B. Potter, and his faithful old servant, Carl Kettler. The remains will leave Palm Beach Monday night on a special train for Buzzard's Bay, Mass., accompanied by all the members of the family who are here.

Joseph Jefferson was born in Philadelphia February 20, 1829. It may almost be said of him that he was cradled on the stage. His earliest memories were of the theater.

It was as Cora's child in "Pizarro" that he made his dramatic entrance in the profession, of which he was destined to be such a shining ornament. He was then only 3 years old. In his veins coursed the blood of several generations of actors. His great grandfather acted the king to Garrick's Hamlet, and was 93 years on the British stage. His paternal grandfather came to this country from England in 1795 and established himself in Philadelphia, where he was accounted one of the foremost comedians of his time. His father was also an actor, but comparatively small of talent. He had been trained as a scenic artist, and from that source undoubtedly came Jefferson's skill with brush and palette. Jefferson's mother, Mrs. Burke—Jefferson's father was her second husband—was a brilliant actress.

Abraham Lincoln Aids Him.

As a boy, while receiving his stage training, Jefferson had to endure many hardships and privations. The family went west in 1839 and opened the first theater in the then infant city of Chicago under the management of Jefferson's father. The venture was not very successful, and the family, with the rest of the company, set forth again in quest of fortune, traveling over the prairies in open wagons. At Springfield the company built a theater. It was little more than a huge drygoods box, but its construction emptied the company's treasury. Had it not been for Abraham Lincoln it would have proved the grave of all their hopes. A religious revival was in progress at the time, and the church attacked the company in their sermons, and got the city to pass a new law enjoining a heavy license against their calling.

In the midst of their trouble a young lawyer called on the manager. He had heard of the injustice, and offered, if they would place the matter in his hands, to have the license taken off, declaring that he only desired to see fair play, and he would accept no fee whether he failed or succeeded. The case was brought up before the council. The young lawyer handled the subject with tact, skill and humor and kept the council in a roar of laughter. His good humor prevailed and the exorbitant tax was taken off. This young lawyer was very popular. His name was Abraham Lincoln.

Jefferson's Father Dies.

Subsequently the company went down the Mississippi in flatboats to meet disaster in Memphis, where bad business closed the theater. Then Jefferson's father turned from scene painting to sign painting in the effort to stave off absolute want and young Jefferson helped in the work. Thus money enough was obtained to proceed to Mobile. There, in 1842, Jefferson's father died of yellow fever, leaving his family in very straitened circumstances. A benefit performance set them on their feet again. Young Jefferson went to Texas and joined a theatrical company traveling there. While in Texas, in 1846, the war with Mexico

GREAT EASTER IS CELEBRATED

Church Offerings Fabulous; Services Elaborate; Weather Grand.

PARADE GORGEOUS

Calvary Episcopal Church Raises $115,000 at the Three Morning Services.

OTHER LARGE DONATIONS

In many respects, yesterday was the most momentous Easter in the history of what is destined to be Greater Pittsburgh. The offerings in the churches were stupendous, one congregation alone raising $115,000. The annual promenade never had an equal, the display of millinery was a sartorial dream to the women who were fortunate enough to witness it; the flower shows in the parks and conservatories drew multitudes; church services were never more elaborate or attended by larger numbers—even the weather was attired in its "very best."

What is probably the largest offering ever given by any one congregation in any one day in the history of churches in Greater Pittsburgh, was tendered during the three services held in Calvary Protestant Episcopal church, Penn avenue and Station street, yesterday morning, when $115,000 was given by about 1,200 communicants towards the fund for building a new church. This offering, it is expected, will be further increased by contributions of members of the parish who were not present at the morning services.

One Person Contributed $15,000.

Although no special request was made from the pulpit by the rector, the Rev. Dr. J. H. McIlvaine, yesterday morning, he had on previous occasions announced that any contributions to the new church fund would be welcomed on Easter morning. The largest individual contribution was $15,000, while the Sunday school poured $1,300 into the fund.

The congregation sold the present church site several months ago for $85,000 and purchased a lot on Shady avenue for $75,000. It is expected to spend about $200,000 on the new church buildings, although no fixed sum has as yet been decided upon.

The services yesterday morning were held at 6:30, 7:45 and 11 o'clock, the greatest offering being made at the latter service. While a large offering was expected, the amount realized was far beyond the fondest expectation of the rector and vestry.

As has been the custom, owing to the traditions of the day and the attendance of unusually large congregations, offerings in all churches in Greater Pittsburgh were exceptionally large yesterday.

Single Donation of $20,000.

Without any previous intimation, and to the great but most agreeable surprise of the rector, vestry and communicants, the announcement was made in St. Thomas' Protestant Episcopal church of Oakmont yesterday morning that J. W. Paul, a vestryman, had donated $20,000 towards a fund for the erection of a new church. The rector, the Rev. Dr. Laurence McLure, made the announcement from the pulpit.

About a year ago Mr. Paul's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Armstrong, presented the congregation with a large lot on C street, Oakmont, upon which to erect a new church. A parish house and rectory have already been erected thereon, while sufficient ground remains to accommodate a large church. It is the intention of the congregation to raise another $20,000 by private contributions before starting building operations.

In response to an appeal from the board of trustees of Bellefield Presbyterian church, Bellefield and Fifth avenues, which was read to the congregation yesterday morning, the communicants pledged $12,000 towards the relief of the church.

One Member Gives an Organ.

One member, whose name is being withheld at his request, agreed to furnish the church with a new pipe organ, which, it is said, will cost in the neighborhood of $10,000. A member of the board of trustees stated last night that an additional $8,000 is expected to be pledged by members of the congregation who were not present yesterday morning.

The statement read to the congregation showed the church to have a mortgage debt of $12,000, while figures were presented showing the yearly expenses of the congregation to be $4,400 in excess of the annual receipts. The trustees predicted that the income will meet the expenses within two years.

In Trinity Protestant Episcopal church, Sixth avenue, the offering at the morning service was $3,000, of which amount one contributor gave $500. This offering, as has been the custom for many years, will be donated to the institutional work of the parish among the poor in the downtown section of the city.

Handsome Gift to Trinity.

Previous to the morning service, the Rt. Rev. Bishop Cortlandt Whitehead, assisted by the rector, the Rev. Dr. A. W. Arundel, dedicated a superb new sedilium, sedilia and sanctuary lamp, which were donated by Mrs. Augustus E. Painter in memory of her husband. The sedilium, or bishop's throne, is of oak, wrought in Gothic style and showing carvings of angels, chalices, the bishop's insignia, trefoils, and pilasters. The sedilia, or clergy stall, combines three seats, and is in the form of a high-backed bench. The sanctuary lamp is of bronze and massively cast. It is six feet in height and of French renaissance design.

The congregation of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Ascension, Ellsworth avenue and Clyde street, gave an offering of $2,500 yesterday morning, which will be distributed under the direction of the vestry. The Rev. Dr. Robert W. Grange is rector.

In the Third Presbyterian church, South Negley and Fifth avenues, the offering yesterday morning was $1,000, and will be applied to home missions in Pennsylvania through the synodical mission board. The Rev. Dr. William L. McEwan is pastor.

Christ M. E. Contribution.

The offering in Christ Methodist Episcopal church, Center avenue, yesterday morning, was in the neighborhood of $1,000, although no special appeal was made. The pastor, the Rev. Dr. Daniel Dorchester, Jr., stated that donations for the year to the church's chief benevolence, the Bradley Memorial home at Oakmont, were $20,000.

In the Second Presbyterian church, Eighth street, no special appeal was made yesterday morning. The offering was between $700 and $1,000. The Rev. Dr. S. Edward Young is pastor.

In the First Presbyterian church, Sixth avenue, the Rev. Dr. Maitland Alexander, pastor, a collection for church session was taken last night and was in the neighborhood of $500.

In Calvary Methodist Episcopal church, Allegheny, the Rev. Dr. J. M. Thoburn, Jr., pastor, an offering was taken yesterday morning for the benevolent enterprises of the church and netted $1,200, while additional contributions are to come.

Greatest Easter Promenade.

The greatest Easter promenade Pittsburgh ever witnessed was enjoyed by 200,000 people in Pittsburgh yesterday. Half a million dollars' worth of new millinery was placed on display in the glorious spring sunshine. Everywhere was evidence of the spirit of the holiday.

In Schenley park 35,000 people paid homage to Easter blooms. The boulevards were thronged with automobiles and equipages of all sorts. East End thoroughfares accommodated a veritable parade of fashion.

Never did the chimes ring sweeter than on yesterday morning. The sky was cloudless and gave promise of a faultless day. At the morning services every church was crowded. The radiant sunshine stole in upon the lily-embowered altars and seemed mutely to emphasize that sublime message: "He is risen." It was the topic of every sermon and the same sweet theme of every anthem of praise.

Easter Afternoon Parade.

It was in the afternoon, however, that the secular significance of the day manifested itself in a way that surprised and even dazzled those who keep the closest vigil on Pittsburgh's greatness. When the warm sunshine bathed the city in a golden glow and nature called people out-of-doors, tens of thousands filled the streets to enjoy the promenade or seek an afternoon's recreation in the parks. It was a gaily dressed crowd and at Schenley park was one such as Pittsburgh seldom sees. Hollow bridge.

Thirty-five thousand people saw the flowers, the largest attendance at an Easter show in Pittsburgh, while as many more roamed over the hills.

In Highland park the crowds were no less in numbers and at the zoo it was spring opening day. The parks on the North Side were crowded. At the Phipps conservatory in West park crowds of visitors came and went all afternoon. The most striking display in the conservatory is the pyramid of over 2,000 janistas, hydrangeas and cinerarias.

PRESIDENT'S CAMP TOGS KEPT HIM FROM CHURCH

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, COL., April 23.—President Roosevelt's hunting party spent a quiet Sunday. The party had been invited to attend church services at New Castle, but it was decided that hunting togs would be inharmonious with Easter gowns. After a week in the saddle, the sportsmen welcomed the chance to rest. Bear tracks have been sighted in several directions from the camp.

Man Shot by Angry Brother.

WHEELING, W. VA., April 23.—(Special.)—On the river shore north of this city late tonight John Seeley emptied the contents of a shotgun into the back of Tom Mills, whom he blamed for a sister's disgrace. Seeley had tried to induce his sister to leave the home of Mills, where she had been living, and failing to do so, is said to have vowed vengeance upon Mills.

SUIT WILL NOT STOP COUNCILS

Threatened Injunction Not to Retard the Passage of the Annexation Bill.

CHAMBER WILL ACT PROMPTLY

Pittsburgh councils will tonight pass the ordinance petitioning the county court for an election on annexation, notwithstanding the filing of a suit before the supreme court in Philadelphia this morning to enjoin the mayor from presenting a petition to the local bench. Neither will the chamber of commerce discontinue getting up its petition to present to the local court.

City Solicitor Rodgers is of the opinion that the supreme court may not make a ruling on the petition of ex-Gov. Stone for an injunction for several days. In explaining this and also why he did not go to Philadelphia to be present when Mr. Stone presents his petition, Mr. Rodgers said last night:

"When a petition of this character is presented to the supreme court that court does not ordinarily desire or allow arguments either for or against the petition, but takes the papers, and after consideration, grants or refuses the petition. Therefore, I see no necessity for being present when the petition is filed. Again, if there is to be litigation over the question, it might as well be started one time as another. Personally I would prefer that it be instituted in the highest court and thus avoid numerous arguments and some delays."

Petition May Be Witheld.

Mr. Rodgers is apparently well satisfied with the course taken by the Allegheny opponents of Greater Pittsburgh, if the question must be tested in the courts. By the tenor of his remarks it is probable he will advise the Pittsburgh administration to withhold the petition to the local court for an election until after the supreme court has decided whether it shall grant an injunction or not.

If the supreme court did not grant the injunction today, there would be nothing to hinder the mayor from filing his petition for an election tomorrow morning, as originally planned, but Mr. Rodgers is satisfied with giving the Allegheny opponents a chance to first obtain a hearing before the supreme court, in order that the whole question may be adjudicated as speedily as possible, without fighting it through the lower to the highest court. The prospect, therefore, is that after councils have passed the ordinance tonight the city authorities will hold up the petition until the supreme court has made a ruling.

There is considerable conjecture why the Allegheny opposition changed its plans to wait until after the election before taking the matter to the supreme court and adopting, instead, its present course. It was the opinion of the Pittsburgh authorities yesterday that the reason the change was made by the Alleghenians was that they feared the vote in Allegheny might be favorable to annexation and the arguments could not then be used that the people of Allegheny were being forced into Pittsburgh against their will. Therefore, the plan of testing the law in advance of an election was decided upon.

William C. Gill, one of the attorneys for the Allegheny obstructionists, said yesterday the suit to be filed today with the supreme court applies only to the municipal authorities of Pittsburgh and cannot stop the chamber of commerce from petitioning the county court, yet Mr. Gill believes the lower courts will not consider a petition from any source while there is a suit pending in the higher court on the matter.

"The injunction which we expect to obtain against the mayor and the city of Pittsburgh does not apply to the chamber of commerce or other outside bodies that may be getting petitions ready, but there is no doubt that the county court will refuse to even consider any petition, out of respect to the supreme court, until the higher court passes upon the question of constitutionality of the Greater Pittsburgh act," said Mr. Gill.

Attorney on Watch Here.

"If the supreme court grants an injunction upon the application which will be filed by ex-Gov. Stone, it will do no good to present any petitions to the county court. The county court may take the petition of the chamber of commerce, but it will go no further with it."

While former Gov. Stone is in Philadelphia to get an injunction, Attorneys Gill and Harvey Henderson are remaining at home to watch the progress of events here. Mr. Gill said yesterday if the supreme court acts favorably upon the application of ex-Gov. Stone today, Mayor Hays and the local authorities would be immediately served with a notice of the court's action before the mayor gets a chance to present the petition to the county court tomorrow morning.

President J. S. Wightman of select council was the first of the three Pittsburgh officials served with a notice on Saturday of the intended suit. The first notice presented to Mr. Wightman bore the name of Thomas S. Wightman. The president of select council said that was not his name and he did not know of any person by that name, his father's name being Thomas Wightman. The Greater Pittsburgh opponents prepared another notice and served it upon him.

President Wightman said yesterday the notices served upon the mayor and the presidents of the two branches of councils would not interfere with any of the plans for tonight's meeting.

"The Greater Pittsburgh ordinance will be passed in both branches and I don't think there will be much else done," said Mr. Wightman.

BIGELOW TELEPHONES ADVICE FROM NEW YORK

Asks That Councils Proceed on Greater Pittsburgh Plan Regardless of Stone's Opposition.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, April 23.—Director Bigelow of Pittsburgh, who is stopping at the Manhattan hotel, had a talk today with City Clerk Minnemyer at Pittsburgh over the long-distance telephone regarding the proposed action of ex-Gov. Stone, and advised that councils should go ahead with the action as already outlined.

"I advised Mr. Minnemyer to talk with Mr. Rodgers in the morning on the subject," said Mr. Bigelow to The Gazette correspondent this evening, "and to go ahead as planned. I do not believe that any action taken by ex-Gov. Stone will in any way retard the consummation of the Greater Pittsburgh project. We have had as good lawyers as Mr. Stone pass on the Greater Pittsburgh bill and are fully confident that it will stand the test of the courts.

"I do not think the friends of Greater Pittsburgh need be at all alarmed at any move made by Mr. Stone or anyone else. The matter will be decided by the voters."

FOR GREATER GREENSBURG.

Boroughs Are Seeking Annexation and a Third Class City Is Planned.

GREENSBURG, April 23.—(Special.)—At the May meeting of the Greensburg council, petitions will be presented by the borough authorities of East Greensburg, Ludwick and Southwest Greensburg asking to be annexed to the borough of Greensburg. Southwest Greensburg and South Greensburg are expected to take favorable action for consolidation this week, and it is possible that petitions will be presented from all five boroughs.

If the consolidation is effected, a city of the third-class with a population exceeding 20,000, will be formed. All the large property owners and the big manufacturing interests of the boroughs are unanimously in favor of consolidation.

Father Charges Abduction.

John Arnes of Carnegie has made information against John E. Logan of East Carnegie, charging abduction. Logan and Gertrude Arnes were refused a marriage license in Pittsburgh last Friday because the girl is under age. The couple appeared at the home of the girl's parents Sunday evening with a marriage certificate, but no license. They claimed they had been married in Wheeling. The father, however, insists on seeing the license. There was a lively chase last night between Arnes and his would-be son-in-law, but the latter escaped. All are negroes.

SHIFTING SCENES OF THE EQUITABLE

Alexander Will Make a Fight Against Petition for an Injunction.

THE AGENTS ARE CRITICISED

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Room 10, Postal Building,
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 23.

There will be a shifting of some phases of the Equitable society difficulties back to Brooklyn tomorrow, where, before Judge Maddox in the supreme court, James W. Alexander's lawyers will endeavor to have much of the matter contained in the petition filed by Samuel Untermyer for James H. Hyde in the application of Franklin B. Lord for an injunction stricken from the records. This will be vigorously opposed by Mr. Untermyer.

Judge Maddox will be asked by Mr. Alexander to have the petition purged of the deed of trust executed by Henry B. Hyde whereby Mr. Alexander became a trustee of the Hyde estate, and it will also be asked that all other matter be expunged from the petition.

In the meanwhile retaliatory measures directed toward those general agents of the Equitable who are credited with having controlled the convention of last week in favor of Alexander and Gage E. Tarbell, are not remote possibilities when the smoke of battle has cleared away somewhat. On the part of the Hyde faction it is believed that the agents revealed their hands when they adopted the resolution, as the last act of the convention, binding the agents in their several territories to form policy-holders associations for the purpose of controlling the policy-holders and their proxies, when the mutualization of the Equitable may have been effected.

This attempt of the agents to handle proxies will probably be well in mind when the committee composed of Senator Depew, August Belmont and Alvin W. Krech to decide upon the plan of mutualization has seriously taken up its work. This committee will begin its labors just as soon as Judge Maddox has decided the Lord application for an injunction. This decision is expected not later than Wednesday.

"Until the Frick committee has made its report there will probably be no developments," John D. Crimmins said. "The report of this committee will show whether or not there has been any wrongdoing on the part of officers or directors of the Equitable. It is very clear to my mind that agents in convention did not better the situation by any action they took.

"The agents seemed to work on false premises, or at least builded their actions on false notions. They became partisans, which weakened their position. Those men should have the welfare of the Equitable at heart, and it was their duty to have investigated rumors and alleged charges before they placed themselves on record."

Absolute denial was made tonight of a suggestion that money of the Equitable had ever been used to defray the expenses of dinners given by the Pilgrim society of New York and London. Denial was also made to a re-publication of the charge that Mr. Hyde's servants are paid from Equitable funds.

CLUB INDORSES GREATER PITTSBURGH MOVEMENT

Strong Resolutions Adopted by the Eleventh Ward Hebrew Tariff Organization—Support Pledged.

Strong resolutions indorsing the Greater Pittsburgh movement and praising Gov. Pennypacker for signing the Greater Pittsburgh bill, and Senator Wilbert, Representative Cook, the Republican leaders of Pittsburgh and the chamber of commerce for securing the passage of the measure in the state legislature, were unanimously adopted last night by the Eleventh Ward Hebrew Tariff club at a largely attended meeting at Central hall, Center avenue and Arthur street. The resolutions on the Greater Pittsburgh were as follows:

Whereas, The agitation for a Greater Pittsburgh, which has occupied the attention of this community for a number of years, has at last been crowned with success through the efforts of David B. Wilbert and L. B. Cook, who, with the Republicans of the senate and house of representatives from Allegheny county, together with the assistance and untiring labor of the Republican leaders of Pittsburgh and the chamber of commerce, have succeeded in having passed the Greater Pittsburgh bill, providing for the annexation of the city of Allegheny to the city of Pittsburgh,

Whereas, Our good governor, the Hon. Samuel W. Pennypacker, by his approval of the bill has earned our esteem and admiration for his action, which paves the way for the joining of these two cities by the voters thereof; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the members of the Eleventh Ward Tariff club of Pittsburgh, composed of Hebrew voters, in mass meeting assembled, heartily indorse the action of our senators and representatives, the Republican leaders of Pittsburgh, the chamber of commerce and our good governor for their action on the Greater Pittsburgh bill, and we pledge our hearty support and influence for a favorable vote at the coming election, and urge upon all voters their active support and co-operation in this great project.

The club also adopted resolutions deploring the death of former Mayor Henry P. Ford, and paying a strong tribute to his character as a public officer and friend of all races.

NOT MIXING IN JAPAN'S AFFAIRS

Secretary Taft and Party's Proposed Visit to Tokyo Is Simply an Incident.

HAS NO BEARING ON THE WAR

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Room 10, Postal Building,
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 23.

Secretary Taft is prepared for the attribution of diplomatic significance to the visit he will make to Tokyo in August, on his way to the Philippines. He has frankly stated there is no reason why his visit and that of the 10 senators, two representatives and members of their families and friends, including Miss Alice Roosevelt, should be considered more seriously than a mere call of courtesy at the Japanese capital during the two days their steamer will lie at Yokohama.

The trip to the Philippines was planned months ago; the pause in Japan is a mere incident. It will be the largest company of officials and legislators from the United States that ever visited a foreign capital. Although their primary mission is to see the Philippines, that their future legislative policy concerning the American far eastern possessions may be assisted by personal knowledge, it is generally felt here that great significance will be attributed to the visit to Tokyo by other powers interested in the far east. The Washington government will try to forestall false ideas about the trip.

Secretary Taft is well known in the far east. President Roosevelt, by assigning to him during Mr. Hay's absence in Europe, the duties of secretary of foreign affairs, has given him a diplomatic character which he before did not possess. The Japanese government, which loses no opportunity to strengthen its good relations with the United States, thereby contributing in the eyes of the world to the idea that Japan has the moral support of America in the present war, has ardently desired the presence at Tokyo of Mr. Taft and his party.

Aside from whatever pro-Japanese significance may be given the visit by the diplomatic representatives of other powers at Tokyo, the trip is assuming great importance not only on account of the interests of the Philippines, but because of the larger questions of far eastern politics precipitated by the Russo-Japanese war. Several senators and a few representatives went to the Philippines a few years ago and some of them touched China. Senator Beveridge of Indiana, made a trip through Manchuria to acquaint himself with far eastern problems. Aside from these no national legislators have studied at close range the problems confronting American commerce in the far east.

RELIGIOUS CONFERENCE COLLIDES WITH POLICE

One Man Is Killed and Fifty Severely Wounded in Streets at Valparaiso During Riot.

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]
(Copyright, 1905, by New York Herald Co.)

VALPARAISO, April 23.—One man is dead and 50 more are more or less severely wounded as a result of a collision in Santiago between a police detachment and a crowd of workmen. The latter had just attended an open-air concert of the Catholic priest, Jose Julio, called the South American Savonarola, who while advocating the simple life, denounced the perversity of his former prelates and the adulteration of Christ's doctrine by the Roman church, when they were met by a religious procession.

They marched to stop the procession, but the police charged with unsheathed swords, the demonstrators answering with a rain of stones.

A majority of the newspapers blame the police for imprudence, but the real, though not immediate, cause is the progressive enlightenment of the working classes, who see in the state's decided protection of determined religion an exceptional privilege incompatible with the elemental principles of a republican government.

PITTSBURGHERS BRING SUIT.

Globe Asphalt Company Files Complaint Against the City of New Orleans and Other Defendants.

NEW ORLEANS, April 23.—(Special.)—Owing to a disagreement over a contract, the Globe Asphalt Company of West Virginia, having its principal offices at Pittsburgh, filed a bill of complaint in the United States court against the Union Development and Construction Company, Limited, Alfred Hiller, Charles Godchaux and Samuel Hyman and the city of New Orleans.

The petition represents that these defendants are indebted to complainant in the sum of $58,076 besides interest and costs; that they took contracts off the hands of the defendants and provided asphalt to that value.

CASTRO CHALLENGES FATE.

While He Does Not Think a Conflict Possible, He Relies on the Valor of Venezuelans.

CARACAS, VENEZUELA, April 22.—President Castro in the course of a speech at Calabazo on April 20, said:

"I do not believe there is a possibility of a new conflict for the republic, but if, against reason, right and justice, anything is cogitating which I do not wish to qualify, I swear to you I shall know to draw inspiration from the memory of the valor patriots formerly exhibited in these plains; and if encouragement is wanting I shall seek it in the indomitable character of the inhabitants of these districts and so supported challenge fate."

JEFFERSON DIES IN FLORIDA

broke out. Jefferson became a camp follower to amuse the soldiers with his act. Soon he rented a small nook in the sutler's quarters and set up a miniature restaurant under the title of Joseph Jefferson & Company, which was profitable. In this campaign Jefferson witnessed the bombardment of Matamoras and he acted in the Spanish theater there after its capture by the Americans.

Jefferson returned to New York in 1849, obtaining an engagement at Chanfrau's National theater. Here he fell in love with Miss Margaret Lockyer, an actress of sterling merit, and married her in 1850. For several years thereafter he drifted about the country, sometimes acting, sometimes managing, meanwhile his wife died.

Travels to Europe in Steerage.

He visited Europe in 1856, traveling in the steerage. But he was soon to bid adieu to poverty and privation. On August 21, 1857, Laura Keene opened her theater in New York at No. 622 Broadway, with Jefferson as a member of her company. He made an immediate hit as Dr. Pangloss in "The Heir at Law." But the signal triumph that placed him in the foremost of comedy came a little later.

On October 18 was produced for the first time Tom Taylor's comedy of "Our American Cousin." As Asa Trenchard, Jefferson fairly took the town by storm. The piece ran nearly 150 nights. In the cast was Sothern, as Lord Dundreary, a role which he subsequently immortalized and incidentally coined into gold.

Joseph Jefferson was married for the second time in 1867 to Sarah Warren. He had five sons, and they all inherited the family talent. Charles B. and Thomas were born of the first wife. William Winter, Joseph and Frank were the offspring of his second marriage. When illness necessitated his father's retirement, Thomas assumed the role of "Rip." Jefferson had one daughter, Margaret, who married Farjeon, the novelist.

"Rip Van Winkle," the play with which Jefferson's name and fame will always be associated, was first produced by him in this city in the winter of 1860. It was substantially Jefferson's own dramatization of the story. It was not until the play was rewritten for him five years later by Dion Boucicault that it won instant success.

The "Rip Van Winkle" that succeeded was first brought out by Jefferson at the Adelphia theater, London, on September 5, 1865. Prior to that he had starred with great success in Australia. "Rip Van Winkle" had a run of 170 nights in London. A year later he produced the play in this city. The verdict of popular approval was promptly rendered. It proved for Jefferson a veritable gold mine.

For many years prior to his death he was regarded as the wealthiest actor in America. In royalties alone Boucicault, it is said, received $25,000 for his share in the dramatization of "Rip Van Winkle."

That his versatility suffered no decline by the constant repetition of "Rip," he proved by occasionally appearing in "The Rivals," "The Cricket on the Hearth," "The Heir at Law," and two of Morton's farces, "Lend Me Five Shillings" and "A Regular Fix," in which he did admirable work.

WAS "JOE" JEFFERSON WITH LOVING ADMIRERS

The Jovial Actor Was Loved for His Fine Personal Qualities.

By CHARLES M. BREGG.

I shall never forget the first time I saw Jefferson's "Rip Van Winkle." I was but a callow youth, enamored somewhat of the stage, but little versed in its art, beyond what the amateurs or the cheap "one night" players had to give. "Rip Van Winkle" was a revelation from a new world. I came to understand for the first time the charm of that realism that is the acme of stage art, the realism of perfect illusion. It was as "Rip Van Winkle" that Joseph Jefferson gave us the best of his skill. He played only a few roles, comparatively speaking, in his lifetime, and never brought to the American stage any great "production," as those things are rated now. Some people thought him penurious and decried his lack of improvement and embellishment of "Rip Van Winkle." Perhaps he was guilty of all these, but the American theater will hardly see again a character so rich and full in all the best and sweetest elements of human feeling, pathos and comedy, as this actor's "Rip Van Winkle." With all its meager surroundings in this latter day of stage finery, it shone like a star of purest ray serene. He had up to the time of his retirement, a year ago, been playing this Irving comedy since 1860, the lifetime of a generation, and yet the children and grandchildren of his first auditors loved the character and demanded it with the same unceasing favor.

It is not generally remembered that Mr. Jefferson was an LL. D. of Yale college and the intimate friend of the leaders of American thought and action in many walks of life. In his personal life he was as amiable and jolly as a child with his friends and the great public. I remember several years ago his presence at the Forrest home near Philadelphia, in attendance upon the annual Shakespearean festival that is given there. He contributed a speech to the exercises. It was largely the speech he had been making for years. In the interim and during the social hour he was the life of the party, and to prove that he was the "youngest" actor present, he laid a wager that he could run faster and jump farther than any man present. When a lady offered to take up the wager Jefferson backed down with a quizzical smile and said he had always been taught to let the ladies be first in everything.

His influence upon American stage art was not diffusive, but it was none the less potent. He established no school of acting, created no widespread hurrah by the flash of his genius, but I doubt whether any other actor in the history of the American stage ever brought more cheer, created more genuine laughter or evoked more sincere tears of appreciation than Joseph Jefferson. His going will cause universal grief for the man, as well as for the loss to histrionic art. The first loss is perhaps the keenest, for thousands all over this land annually breathed for him the toast of old Rip: "May you live long and prosper."

Now that he has gone out beyond the footlights' feverish glare, that same toast, set to the silent prayer for a safe convoy across the dark river, will be wafted after him.

DEFEAT MIGHT BRING PEACE

Liberals Believe Victory for Togo Would Improve Internal Situation in Russia.

MAY DAY IS GREATLY FEARED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

ST. PETERSBURG, April 23.—Not only the future of the war in the far east, but the fate of the whole program of internal reform to which Emperor Nicholas stands committed, appears to await the issue of the approaching sea battle between Rojestvensky and Togo.

The government undoubtedly would be greatly strengthened, at least for the moment, by a victory decisive enough to change the war situation. The Liberals are impatient at the delay and suspicious of every move of the government. They are convinced that if victory comes, the bureaucracy, to which the realization of reforms has been consigned by the emperor, will be able, despite the clamor throughout the country, to keep the execution of these reforms in their own hands, which, of course, in their opinion would mean their eventual dissipation in a labyrinth of endless commissions. Moreover, they believe that the emperor might again be persuaded to listen to the necessity of the old style of repression of the present agitation.

Practically the interior administration is being conducted through a police regime. Already there are everywhere evidences of return to Plehve methods. Domiciliary visits and arrests by scores and hundreds are reported in every part of the empire and meetings of all classes of the people are forbidden and broken up by the police under the direction of the local governors.

Defeat Would Bring Peace.

Should Rojestvensky be defeated, on the contrary, the Liberals believe that the bureaucracy would capitulate and that peace and a constitution would come.

In the meantime the Easter holidays and May day are awaited with extreme anxiety, both by the authorities and the public. The Social Democrats and revolutionaries have planned demonstrations on an extensive scale, and many of them are armed with revolvers and bombs, which have been smuggled into the country to fight the police, in case they should attempt to interfere with the demonstrations. The revolutionaries seem to have plenty of funds, furnished both abroad and by wealthy sympathizers in Russia. The wildest stories of plans for blowing up the members of the imperial family, ministers and palaces and of pillage and murder of the nobility and the wealthy are current, especially in aristocratic drawing-rooms, and many society people, thoroughly frightened have already made preparations to go abroad.

Large reinforcements of troops and especially of Cossacks, have been brought to St. Petersburg. Arrests and searches of the lodgings of suspects continue; but even Gen. Trepoff, although he is taking every measure of precaution, does not seem to know exactly what to expect.

Baltic Provinces Storm Centers.

Although disorders more or less serious are anticipated, everywhere, the Baltic provinces are the storm centers. Gen. Maximovitch, governor general of Warsaw, has just returned to his post after a conference here, clothed with almost dictatorial powers.

There are many disquieting reports of disaffection of troops and the names of regiments, even in the imperial guards, are given as having been won over to "the cause of liberty." The military authorities, however, declare that there is no question of the loyalty of the troops and that orders will be obeyed. They admit, however, that the revolutionaries have pushed their propaganda among the soldiers with great earnestness.

Independent investigation seems to bear out the official claim except as to the Caucasus, where, according to private advices, just received, the troops are badly fed, and are on the verge of mutiny and ready to join the revolutionaries.

SHOOTS HIMSELF IN WIFE'S ROOM

A. F. Healey of Millvale Attempts Suicide and Will Probably Be Successful.

SISTER-IN-LAW IS IN JAIL

"Good-by, you'll never see me again," said A. F. Healey, as he leaned over the bed in his wife's room at their home, 49 Fellbaugh street, Millvale, and kissed his wife and six-weeks-old baby. There was a loud report and Healey fell to the floor beside the bed, unconscious, having sent a 32-caliber bullet into his abdomen.

Drs. F. M. Davis and W. A. Hodkinson were summoned and ordered Healey taken to the Allegheny General hospital, where he was received about 12:15 a. m. yesterday.

While the doctors were attending to the wounded man Miss Annie Campbell, Mrs. Healey,s sister was greatly excited. She was committed to jail by Justice E. R. Beuthner of Millvale, as a witness of the shooting.

Healey is aged 24 and has been employed on the Pittsburgh & Western railroad as a passenger brakeman. He was seen in Allegheny Saturday afternoon by one of the physicians who was later called to attend him. Miss Campbell has been with the Healey family for about six weeks, and was caring for her sister, who gave birth to a child six weeks ago.

At the Allegheny General hospital an operation was performed on Healey yesterday, but the physicians failed to find the bullet. The physicians stated that the ball entered the abdomen on the right side, penetrated the liver, and they think the bullet is lodged in his spine. It is thought Healey is suffering from internal hemorrhages and late last night he was reported to be in a critical condition.

Healey's wife was in a serious condition yesterday as a result of the shock. Healey has lived in Millvale for some years and is well known in the borough. Besides his wife and infant child, he also has a son aged 3.

MAN FALLS 40 FEET AND DEATH RESULTS

Wascoskie Found Unconscious in an Alley With a Fractured Skull.

Joseph T. Wascoskie, aged 45, a Hungarian, yesterday fell 40 feet from a porch in the rear of 2520 Josephine street, South Side, dying later at the South Side hospital. He had been drinking and went to the boarding house and asked Ignots Gaslinsky for something to drink. Gaslinsky noticed he was intoxicated and closed the door.

Later Wascoskie was found in an alley way unconscious. Special Officers McAfee and Gray made an investigation, finding that the dead man had fallen off the porch and over the hillside, fracturing his skull. Gaslinsky was arrested, but later was released.

George Gray, aged 20, of Frederick, Va., a news agent employed by Supt. J. A. Wallace of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, died at the Homepathic hospital from cerebral meningitis. He was taken ill in his room at the Sherman house, Water and Grant streets during the afternoon, and died on his arrival at the hospital. His disease was not the dreaded "spotted fever" so contagious in some cities.

An unknown man, Hungarian, about 22 years old, was killed yesterday by a train on the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad, at McKees Rocks.

The coroner was yesterday notified that Catherine Kelly, aged 67, of 805 Brownsville avenue; James McCormick, aged 30, of 21 Rowley street, and Mrs. Ella Maloney, aged 39, colored, of 14 Carpenter alley, had died from heart disease.

Opium Joint Is Raided.

Police Captain Thomas McCabe last night raided an opium joint on the second floor of 141 Washington street and captured D. Brown, the alleged proprietor, and three visitors, W. H. Moore and Jennie Blaine, negroes, and Pearl Williams, a white woman. All were under the influence of the drug. One layout was confiscated.

Woman Takes Carbolic Acid.

Lena Steiner, aged 35, while despondent, attempted to kill herself in her room at 610 River avenue, Allegheny, about 8:15 o'clock last night by drinking a quantity of carbolic acid. She was taken to the Allegheny General hospital. Though her mouth and throat are badly burned, the hospital authorities think she will recover.

CAPT. WILSON'S TRIAL WILL NOT BE DELAYED

Attorneys for the Prosecution Declare They Are Ready to Start.

"Everything is in readiness to place Capt. James Wilson of Allegheny on trial tomorrow morning on one of the charges brought against him in the Allegheny graft cases," said Attorney John Marron, who is associated in the cases with Attorney John C. Haymaker, last night. "Unless something unforeseen happens," said Mr. Marron, "we certainly will go ahead with the case tomorrow."

Mr. Marron will present the commonwealth's side of the case to the jury and he also expects to make the closing speech. This announcement will probably attract a bigger crowd to the trials of Capt. Wilson than was present when Melvin H. Campbell and Charles Striepeke were tried. Marron has added to his reputation as a jury speaker in the Campbell and Striepeke cases.

The attorneys for the prosecution expect to finish the case against Wilson today, unless trouble is experienced in securing a jury and in the line of defense which the defendant's attorneys, J. Scott Ferguson and W. J. Brennen, take.

Although Marron and Haymaker expect to have a busy week trying the different cases against Wilson, it is probable that more informations will be entered against people in the Allegheny graft cases. Mr. Marron last night said the prosecution is not yet through with the people concerned in the graft cases.

LOOKS LIKE MIDSUMMER IN RAILROAD STATIONS

Strangers Numbering 10,000 Come to Pittsburgh for Flower Show—Special Trains Packed With People.

The Union, Baltimore & Ohio and Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad stations were filled with travelers last night, and the scenes resembled those of the midsummer height of the excursion business. It is estimated that fully 10,000 strangers from Western Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia came to Pittsburgh to see the Easter flowers in Schenley park. There were hundreds of family parties, men and women carrying babies in arms and accompanied by youngsters of all ages, some hardly able to walk.

At least 2,500 persons came in over the Allegheny Valley railroad alone, for the 48 cars of the three sections of the Buffalo express and the two sections of the Oil City express were packed. The Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh railroad brought in two specials from Punxsutawney, Mt. Jewett and Dubois, 1,300 persons being aboard the trains. The regular trains on the Baltimore & Ohio bringing visitors from Wheeling and points between there and Pittsburgh, were crowded, and travel on the regular trains on the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad was unusually heavy. It is some years since Easter came so late in the season, and the fair weather brought more visitors than arrived on any Easter Sunday for some years back.

EGG HATCHES TROUBLE.

Kudzma Doesn't Like Chickens In His and Therefore Is Now Resting in the Hospital.

According to the story of Sylvester Kudzma of Moon Run, who is at present stopping in the South Side hospital, an Easter egg hatched an unripe chicken, a family row and bullet wound in his left arm, at his home last night.

Kudzma, who is a Hungarian and 40 years of age, sat down to the supper table last evening and opened up on an entree of Easter eggs which, like Joseph's coat, were of many hues. Kudzma drew a green one in sympathy with the Hungarian national colors, and to his honor and the shame of the flag, he claims to have found a boiled chicken therein. A discussion followed during which, he says, his wife kicked him.

"Billy," a son, who is said to have taken the negative side of the debate, at this juncture excused himself long enough to go to an upper room for a 32 caliber revolver. He is then said to have invited his father out into the street to be shot. With fatherly devotion Kudzma consented, and was promptly shot through the arm. Officer Simon Francis found Kudzma on a street car headed for the hospital and accompanied him.

SIR KNIGHTS AT CHURCH.

The Rev. Dr. Wallace Tharp Preaches to Allegheny Commandery in First Christian Edifice.

The Rev. Dr. Wallace Tharp, pastor of the First Christian church, Allegheny, preached a special Easter sermon last night before Allegheny Commandery No. 35. The Sir Knights marched to the church in full uniform. The rite of baptism was administered after the service. Dr. Tharp said in part:

"I congratulate you upon the history of your noble order, whether it can be traced back to the knighthood of the medieval period or not. Its history is great enough to compel admiration, even dating it back to its beginning upon American soil."

Keg Talk

WASHING the kegs is only a part of our system of cleanliness—but it's important. You can't see the inside of the casks which the brewer's wagon delivers to your dealer. You must take their contents with faith and "trust to luck" for the cleanliness. We respect your faith in us by thoroughly brushing, rinsing and scalding each keg by special machinery.

NOR is this all—for an inspector with an electric lamp peers into every cask, and into every part of it. If there's a speck of scale or dust on the inside of any of the kegs, back it goes for another brushing, scrubbing, scalding, rinsing and cooling, as at first.

Reports of a plot discovered against the life of the czar and members of his family among the chosen guards regiments are indicative of the perilous conditions prevailing in Russia. It has been the policy of the government to send the reserves to Manchuria because they might be influenced to join the revolutionary movements. It has been felt the regulars could be depended upon in any emergency. If, however, these late reports prove true, it would appear the government has gained nothing by keeping the seasoned soldiers at home, and has lost the goodwill of the peasant friends and relatives of the reservists who have been compelled to go to the front. The czar has cause, indeed, for uneasiness.

Reports of heavy firing heard off the coast of Cochin-China may be the prelude to the long-expected naval battle in the China sea. It may be, on the other hand, only the result of a skirmish of scout ships of the contending navies. The Japanese plan has appeared to be to avoid a decisive engagement of the full forces and to strike a blow whenever one might be delivered with comparative safety. Yet no one can say certainly what the Japanese plan of campaign contemplates, because the Japanese have marked ability in preserving silence where information might be useful to the enemy. It is but natural that every movement in those waters should attract world-wide attention because so much depends upon the result there.

Gov. Pennypacker justly disapproved the bill which sought to prohibit connection of any person with any public or educational institution, including hospitals, who had not been rendered immune from smallpox by means of vaccination. This was obviously carrying a principle too far. A majority of doctors declare their belief in vaccination as a means of immunizing against variola, but a respectable minority dissents from that view. If they are wrong, so much the worse for them. Yet it is not necessary to prohibit them from attendance in hospitals, or from engaging in educational work on that account. The danger is theirs. Those who have been rendered immune have nothing to fear and ought not to insist so strongly upon protecting their fellows from their own folly.

Some interesting results are said to have been secured by the attempts to take photographs from kites for the war department, and it is believed some of the information now secured by means of balloons can be more safely obtained in this way. It has been known for some years that cameras could be manipulated while suspended from kites by the use of electricity, but if an officer wished to get the range for the artillery, the balloon method, so successfully used at Port Arthur, would seem more practical. Facts about the size of the enemy's force and the location of the defenses could be learned from photographs. The range of a telephoto camera attached to a kite is said to be 12 miles under favorable conditions and they will undoubtedly be called upon for service during active hostilities.

Pressure which is maintained pretty continuously in behalf of anti-cigaret laws seems to have been unusually successful the past winter, for Indiana, Nebraska and Wisconsin have passed stringent measures intended to protect minors from the evil effects of cigaret smoking, while similar bills are pending in Illinois and Michigan. Such bills usually receive the sympathetic indorsement of fathers who may be smokers themselves, but who wish to shield the youth from danger of nicotine poison during their adolescence. Almost everyone recognizes the evil and the only question seems to be as to the best method of combatting it. The failure of measures forbidding the use of cigarets by boys is usually due to the fact that the written statute has gone further than the public sentiment, which should discourage the practice.

While President Castro of Venezuela has no doubt annoyed this government as he has many others by his evasions and trials of patience by delays and effrontery, the publication of the diplomatic relations of Minister Leishman with the sultan of Turkey gives a record of more irritating acts. The sultan has more than once proceeded to a point dangerously approaching a rupture, only to make a new promise at the last moment. It will be seen that at one time the state department advised the United States minister to leave Constantinople by warship unless he received more courteous treatment. Some years ago President Cleveland had secretly ordered the navy to bombard Smyrna if attention was not paid to our claims, and it came out when this fact was made public that this would have been done had it not been for the earnest protest of our minister to Turkey, who was able to avert the crisis.

High Speed Proceedings.

Greater Pittsburgh affairs are moving with almost startling rapidity. Almost as soon as Gov. Pennypacker's signature was attached to the bill, the chamber of commerce began circulating a petition to be presented in court in case councils did not take prompt action. Under this stimulus councils were summoned, with almost ludicrous haste, to pass the necessary ordinance. Apparently the opposition was also infected by the spirit of the thing, for it decided suddenly not to await the filing of objections to the petition in the county court, but to file a suit in equity in the supreme court and ask for a restraining order.

Nothing could better please the friends of the Greater Pittsburgh than these evidences of the desire on all sides to have all questions settled promptly and all preliminary proceedings disposed of. The equity suit will have the effect of determining the constitutionality of the act in the shortest possible time. If the decision is favorable the matter will be in excellent shape in the county court to be pushed to completion and the election ordered.

It is just as well that the chamber of commerce and others are going ahead with plans for conducting the campaign for the popular vote. The chances are strongly in favor of the supreme court sustaining the law as enacted, and no time should be lost after that before beginning the campaign. The opposition will naturally be busy while the court proceedings are pending trying to create sentiment against consolidation. It realizes it has a strong public opinion to overcome and is likely to resort to desperate measures to accomplish its purpose. For this reason the proponents should prepare themselves to meet any argument or emergency. The public advantage at stake is worth striving for.

Health in Panama.

Col. W. C. Gorgas, chief sanitary officer of the Panama canal zone, has submitted his health report for March. It fully bears out all that has been said in these columns for the possibility of preventing any such mortality as marked the operations of the old French Panama Canal Company. Col. Gorgas reports a total of 9,000 persons employed, of whom 153 were in hospital and 11 died during the month. This would give a death rate of 14, which the sanitary officer truly says could be regarded good anywhere.

This result has been achieved by observing common sanitary precautions and enforcing well-known rules in the camps. It is not quite equal to the results secured with the Japanese army in Manchuria, as recently reported, but the difference is easily accounted for by the better dietary habits of the Japanese, the higher order of intelligence of the majority of the mikado's soldiers and their more implicit obedience to sanitary orders. The results in Panama are gratifying and give reasonable promise of the great work being carried through without undue loss of life.

Joseph Jefferson.

The passing of Joseph Jefferson at his winter home in Palm Beach, Fla., marks the end of an epoch in the theatrical world, for he was an actor of such naturalness and broad sympathies that he interested thousands whose sole sympathy with the stage was due to his impersonation of Rip Van Winkle and Bob Acres. In this respect he was able to widen the influence of the stage and came to be regarded as a man apart from the ordinary characters which are presented for the edification of the public. Nevertheless he was an actor appreciative of the efforts of those in his profession whose personality served to ennoble the stage. For over 40 years he had held a distinctive place made by himself in his original presentation of the drunkard Rip, elevated by pathetic interpretation to an attractive impersonation.

Descended from a family of actors, Jefferson inherited their talent, but he also possessed artistic ability of another sort, which he displayed both by his collections of paintings and those designed by himself during leisure moments off the stage. It was this refinement of taste that made permanent friendships with conspicuous men in various departments of life. These he entertained at "Crows Nest," his home on Buzzards bay, or amid the palm trees of Florida. He was by common consent an exponent of the stage, whose cause he pleaded before learned societies. Age did not seem to detract from his success as Rip Van Winkle, and it is said the play has been enjoyed by more American people through his presentation than that of any character portrayed by an American actor. His style may be criticised and even his art called into question, but the charming personality of the man had an appealing character that never failed to satisfy the people.

A Model Bill.

Among the laws enacted during the recent session of the legislature, which attracted no attention at the time, is one mentioned in our news columns that puts the cost of keeping certain prisoners upon localities from which they are committed. The law appears to be just, but may cause some confusion and possibly bickering in the settlement of accounts. The provision is, briefly, that persons committed by cities, boroughs or townships of the first class for nonpayment of fines and costs imposed for violations of local ordinances, shall have the cost of their maintenance in prison paid by the said cities, boroughs or townships.

Aside from the relief to the county treasury in cases of such commitment, the act will likely operate to prevent the free use of the power of magistrates to impose a fine with a prison alternative. There has been much complaint the crowded jails are overburdened by prisoners of this class. Under the new law it is probable many will be given lodging for a day or a week in police stations or borough "lock-ups" instead of being sent to the county prison at local expense.

This is a small step in the reform of primary justice that is needed in this commonwealth. It is, however, a step in the right direction. There is need for extension that will keep a horde of petty cases off the court calendars, as this act may keep a class of petty offenders out of overcrowded jails. There is too rapid increase of court business in proportion to population and too great readiness on the part of committing magistrates to send everything up to the county that can be made to yield a fee of any kind.

A Scientist's Disclaimer.

Recently sensational reports were sent out from New York about the cure of cancer by radium, particularly under treatment by a particular process invented by Hugo Lieber, a chemist of high attainments. It is interesting to note a frank denial of those statements by Mr. Lieber himself. The chemist says it is too soon to either laud or condemn his discovery. There have been favorable reports from some physicians who have tried the process, and discouraging reports from others, and it will require more time to determine its exact value.

This experience is simply a repetition of many that preceded it. There is a class of writers without knowledge of pathologic processes, of medicine or of chemistry who appear to delight in heralding "marvellous cures," or universal panaceas whenever they hear of experiments being tried. Those sensation mongers do incalculable harm. They raise futile hopes in the afflicted to be followed by undue discouragement; bring science and scientists into disrepute, and open the door for the conscienceless charlatans who hang on the edge of the medical profession.

Radium probably will prove of great value in the treatment of certain types of disease or trains of symptoms. It will not be a cure-all. The rays discovered by Roentgen have therapeutic value in some states, and vast usefulness in surgery, but they have not fulfilled the predictions of the sensational writers. In this instance, as in others, charlatans have promised the impossible and their failures have discouraged many from seeking the possible relief that might have been obtained from skillful treatment. It is time the sensational "cure" reporter should be suppressed.

The Wheat Flurry.

There are the usual morals to be deduced from the sensational operations in wheat marking the close of last week, whether the view is accepted that Gates has been smothered or that he has escaped. They are that persons of small means have no place in the market and that laws of supply and demand cannot long be successfully defied. Mr. Gates or Mr. Armour may cause unnatural fluctuations in the cereal markets. They may make or lose money according to the turn of the wheel, but their operations are not vital to the vast majority of mankind.

These gigantic corners are not an unmixed evil. To a certain extent they disturb the natural course of trade, and often pathetic failures follow in their wake. Yet they do more than ordinary market operations to educate the public to the dangers inherent in speculation. The man with enough to put up a margin and no more, must perceive that he has no power to resist the giant forces of millions. He must understand that he stakes his money on a game that is being played by someone else and with which he has nothing to do. If he stakes it and loses he is entitled to no sympathy. When the buying of wheat is left to those who need it in their business and the selling to those who have wheat to dispose of there will be no wrecks to mark the path of tornado "corners."

Saving Niagara Falls.

In spite of the committee report favorable to extension of the commercial uses of the water of Niagara Falls it is said public sentiment is so strongly opposed the bill before the New York assembly is not likely to pass, and if passed will be vetoed by Gov. Higgins. Commercial interests seeking cheap water power have been active at Albany for years and at the last session secured adoption of an act which was vetoed by Gov. Odell. When they reappeared at this session they openly proffered bribes to members likely to accept them. This became so notorious, a public outcry was raised and the promoters are said to be ready to abandon hope of success this time.

Niagara is not wholly safe, however, for the manufacturing plants which have a hold there will seek to extend their privileges. They realize that ultimately public sentiment will demand radical measures to save the magnificent fall of water that has made Niagara one of the world's wonders, even if the federal government must be appealed to. When Niagara park was saved as a viewpoint from which to observe the falls the matter was taken up seriously by an organization of public-spirited men who secured the necessary legislation by persistent work. After the park was secured the matter was practically dropped and there has been no organization since to match the greedy watchfulness of the despoilers. Now there is an opportunity for eminent men wishing to preserve this magnificent spectacle, who should organize and prepare to fight until the falls are secure from destruction.

A New Air Ship.

M. Santos-Dumont is now engaged on the ambitious attempt of constructing an airship that not only will carry several passengers, with facilities for their comfort, but also will be able to remain in the air for an extended length of time, say, 30 days. This is accomplished by means of a coil of aluminum tubing within the balloon proper, through which steam can be made to circulate at will, thus causing the gas to expand and the air-ship to rise. By allowing the steam to condense, the gas will be correspondingly cooled and the balloon will sink. The boiler is fired with petroleum, which also serves as ballast. The boiler and the condenser are of the lightest possible construction. Such a device, M. Santos-Dumont believes, will obviate any substantial loss either of gas or of ballast, such as is necessary in the control of balloons of the older type, and it will enable the air-ship to maintain a constant altitude at the will of the operator, despite changes in meteorological conditions.—Harper's Weekly.

TALKED OF IN GOTHAM

By FRANK A. PARKER.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, April 23.—In the old days, after a man had been a failure in about every line of business, he either became the editor of a newspaper or hung out his shingle as a real estate agent. But in these days of specialties a man must know as many different things to be an editor or a real estate agent as in half a dozen ordinary occupations. We therefore have schools of journalism which teach everything one needs to know about the profession except about half a million things that can be learned only where there is an odor of printer's ink permeating the atmosphere. He can get along a heap better without a course in the school of journalism than he can without the practical experience to be gained from an astute, though sometimes brutally frank, city editor of the old school, who was inclined to tell the cub reporter just about how little he knew about the business, which would do the aforesaid reporter a lot of good if he would allow it to sink in through his veneer of ego.

All of which is only an introduction to the fact that a "school of real estate" is now in session in New York, the only one in the world. It is only one of the branch courses of the Young Men's Christian association, but anyone who has investigated the educational work of the Y. M. C. A. need not be told that it is thorough. Until one investigates the question, or at least gives it a little rational thought, he wonders what there is that can be taught from books to aid a man to sell real estate. After reading the humorous papers for a few years one is inclined to think that all a man needs to get himself up as a real estate agent is a small piece of swamp land as far away from the office as possible and a preponderance of nerve.

Many Things to Be Learned.

But conjure up a few of the things that are taught to this class of real estate and then ask if there is not something of a technical nature in the business after all. The list includes those branches of the law that treat of transfers, titles, mortgages and leases, building construction, relative cost of materials, the city's building laws, a few things about sanitation and the sanitary laws, and a score of other things that are just as important to know, unless you would allow yourself or your client to be "stuck" in a big deal. Most of these things can be picked up after a manner in the course of business, but the school furnishes a shorter cut and an early start on the road to success. Of course, there is no attempt to make a man an expert in each line of work that is touched upon by the school, but he is so grounded in the elementary points of each that he is not easily deceived by the unscrupulous dealer he may meet in the course of business. Perhaps it also helps him to deceive others less well informed than himself, but, of course, we are dealing only with the honest real estate agent in this little talk.

Lectures by Experts.

The real estate class meets several evenings each week at the West Side Y. M. C. A. building to hear lectures on the various subjects taught, and the most successful men in the various lines give their time to the class. They believe they are thus raising the standard of real estate dealers and they hope that from being known, as it once was, as a nondescript business, it will come to be regarded as a profession worthy of the efforts of the best and brightest of our young men. The standard of men in the real estate business, not those who own large amounts of property, but the brokers, has been gradually reaching a higher plane for years, and this plan of giving real estate lectures, by educating the men in their specialty, will only serve to accentuate and bring into the profession more college-bred men as they are shown the great opportunities.

Some Big Things in Sight.

The rapid increase in value of real estate in the larger cities of the world has done more than anything else to draw men of brains and ability to the business. There are many large rewards to battle for, even for those who are merely handling other people's money and property. And in this day and age of the world the possession of money lends dignity, because it is a sign of success in one's chosen field of endeavor. But among those who are taking the course at the Y. M. C. A. school are some young men who will need to handle only their own property. They are among the chosen few who have had their place in the world made for them and they need only to stick to the line laid down to gain more than a fair share of success. To handle the property that has come to them, they feel that it is necessary to know many things not learned in the universities, and instead of taking up the burden to learn the necessary lessons by practice they propose to start out with as much knowledge as can be gained without paying the high prices that are charged in the school of experience.

Always Looking for Ideas.

One of the things that a young man starting out in the real estate business is told to do is to watch the newspapers closely, in order that he may pick up any idea that is floating around. The formation of a syndicate of young men to purchase a plot of ground on which to build a series of homes for themselves, which was brought to a focus a few days ago, was quickly pounced upon by a member of the Y. M. C. A. realty class, who saw the story in print, and he promptly sought out the man who had worked the scheme to get from him all the information possible. It is a scheme that can be worked in many ways. It is far from new, but the young men who put through the deal in question added details to it that commends it more strongly to the dealer who has a tract on his hands and is unable to develop it entirely himself or who cannot find a man who will take the whole tract. It simply opens up a new avenue of profit, although it requires a little more work on the part of the dealer.

Panama Hats.

Panama hats are in as good form as ever for the country, and the fact that they have been dropped by "the great unttubbed" has merely served to give them an added fillip toward exclusiveness. Of course, no man in his senses would wear a Panama in town. Next to the Panama for the country comes the rough straw sailor hat for the city.—Haberdasher.

QUIET OBSERVATIONS

By ERASMUS WILSON

"History but repeats itself," says someone who had been impressed with a certain sameness in the records of great events.

And why not? Is not human nature the same the world over? When allowance is made for the different conditions under which men live there really is not a very great difference between the people of any nation and its neighbors.

"True love never does run smoothly," is another of those truisms common to all people.

"Marry for love and trust for money," used to be popular and generally well thought of, but of late the terms have been changed so that it now reads: "Marry for money and trust for love."

Only the other day a letter appeared in this column written by a most worthy young woman claiming to be a bachelor girl because the man of her choice happened to meet a wealthier girl.

There are just such men in every community, with women to match. How nice it would be if they would mate and fight it out between themselves. Wealth matched with love makes a mighty unreliable team.

But such cross-teams are not uncommon now, nor ever were.

* * *

Mr. Quiet Observer:

I have in my possession a copy of the poem entitled, "'N' for Nannie and 'B' for Ben," given me a few years ago by a bachelor friend who used to travel over the groundhog district near Jefferson county. Perhaps it is the same "old bach" who is in search of it now, so for his gratification I send you a copy of the poem for publication.

A BACHELOR GIRL.

New Kensington, Pa.

"N" for Nannie and "B" for Ben.
I see them now as I saw them then;
On the bark of the oak tree old.
She stood by my side in the clover white,
While the liquid gold of the June sunlight,
Swept over her sweet young head:
And I had just carved those letters twain,
Which time and the tempests all in vain
Have striven to blur and blot;
They lived in the oak tree's dusky grain;
Stamped is their memory on my brain;
Changing, changing, and fading not.
Oh! the vows that I vowed that day!
Their broken shreds in my bosom stay,
Wounding it hour by hour.
Could I prove false to one so true?
Dared I prove cruel, my love, to you?
Oh, Nannie, my lily flower!
Ere the snow had whitened those letters twain,
In the old church porch you bid your pain
As I and my bride passed by.
Your eyes were brave, but your cheek grew white—
The cheek that I should have pillowed that night,
Where now it can never lie.

Little Nannie you are at rest,
Buttercups growing over your breast
Close by the church yard gate:
And I have lived to rue the day
Gold tempted my steps away,
And mine is the sadder fate.
I'd give the rest of my life tonight
To see you stand in the clover white,
The sun on your locks of gold,
And carve once more as I carved them then,
"N" for Nannie and "B" for Ben
On the bark of the oak tree old.

—J. Gault Davis.

Is the tendency of the times toward a better condition of things?

Hardly, if we may base an opinion on the facts as set forth by bachelors, male or female.

Each of these social factors holds the other accountable for the present more or less deplorable conditions of domestic life. And most likely it is the same old case of the pot calling the kettle black.

Will they ever get together, or will they continue to disagree and each go along after their own fashion?

This is no idle or foolish question. On the contrary, it is of greater importance than the political issues which often divide the nation. Were it to effect all the people the nation would soon be in a bad way.

When men and women cease to live for their country they cannot be relied upon to fight for it, much less to die for it, which is very different from the spirit of the fathers who pledged their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor to maintain its standards.

But these folks are dead, suggests the joker. Let us hope they are not all dead. They are not all dead, but their once overwhelming majority appears to be growing less and less as the years go by and the nation becomes richer and richer.

* * *

For several weeks past the bachelor girl has been allowed to display herself in this column in the hope that she might reveal to the public her true character, and what manner of creature she really is.

Her revelations have hardly been as satisfactory as was hoped for, and yet about as clear as could have been expected, for bachelor girls are women, you know, and women don't often reveal their makeup.

Not a few of our readers are still wondering who, or what, the bachelor girl is, having waited long and patiently for her to make a clean breast of it and give the world to know and to understand clearly and once for all just what she is, what she wants, and how she proposes to get it.

Many of those who expected to find the bachelor girl a rare sort of bird, so to speak, have about concluded that she is a combination of old maid and working woman, both of whom are, as a rule, discontented, and to whom life has a sort of sour taste.

One correspondent defines the bachelor girl as one pouting because she can't have things pretty much her own way, and has gone out to show the world that she don't have to do as other women.

This is hardly fair, but coming from a bachelor man it may be taken as an indication of her standing among real bachelors.

* * *

Many, very many, women have found it necessary to seek work, not only for their own support, but to assist in supporting others.

In addition there are a great many who, having no taste for the domestic arts, have taken up office work. In some instances it is not really necessary for them to work, but they do it to get extra money. Not a few prefer to work at something congenial and hire others to do their sewing and housework.

But why should these call themselves bachelor girls? Their only excuse is, probably, that it is a fetching sort of title. Nor do they bother their heads concerning its real meaning. That it is misleading will be generally admitted by the bachelor girl and her best friends, but the principle is all right.

It will be safe enough for all practical purposes to conclude that the bachelor girl does not belong to a distinct cult, but may be anything save a wife.

* * *

Unmarried women, such as were commonly known as old maids, rushed in to help fill the ranks, also to help form a new cult, and to give it character and tone.

Thus it appears that no real change has taken place save in the name of the same old girls. Nor is she any further on the way to hubbyland. If anything she is estranging herself from those who are to be, or may be, the hubbies of the future.

Anyway she had better set herself right by showing who she is, where she works, and what she expects to gain by following a banner bearing that strange device, "A bachelor girl."

Two Honest People.

Covington and Mansfield boast of citizens whom it would certainly spoil to elect to public office. One of them, Taylor Steele by name, found a fine gold watch belonging to a young woman named Herman. He told everybody on the street about his good luck and cautioned them to keep it a secret. But naturally the news traveled at a two-forty gait and the watch soon found its owner. The other is a brilliant young lawyer who, on the road to Blossburg found a pocketbook containing about $100 and some valuable papers belonging to a Covington merchant, which the merchant's wife had lost. Finding the name on checks in the pocketbook, the lawyer returned the property, very much to the relief of the merchant.—Wellsboro Agitator.

Of course the bottle was not cut or broken to insert the wonder—it just growed there, the wee baby pickle being pushed through the neck and allowed to remain until it matured.—Windber Era.

Oil Fuel for Steamships.

The use of oil instead of coal on merchant vessels has long ago passed the experimental stage, and the work now going on is merely one of extension. BIG CONVENTION FOR AN OFF-YEAR

Attendance at the Republican State Meeting This Week Will Be Large.

ANDREWS ARRANGING DETAILS

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
HARRISBURG, PA., April 23.

Attendance at Wednesday's Republican state convention for the nomination of a state treasurer and three superior court judges will be unusually large for an "off-year," according to Wesley R. Andrews, secretary of the state committee, who arrived here this evening from Washington with his office force to arrange the details of the convention.

Mr. Andrews will be followed tomorrow by Senator Penrose and Insurance Commissioner Durham, who will make the Boas mansion their headquarters during their visit. The headquarters of the state committee will be at the Commonwealth hotel and will be opened in the morning.

Representative J. Lee Plummer of Hollidaysburg, who will be nominated for state treasurer, will also be at the Commonwealth. Plummer will arrive here tomorrow afternoon with a delegation of Blair county retainers, who will have charge of his campaign. Neither of the prospective judicial nominees—President Judge Charles E. Rice of Wilkesbarre, James A. Beaver of Bellefonte and George B. Orlady of Huntingdon—will come here for the convention. Their nomination by acclamation is conceded. Their interests will be looked after by the organization leaders.

Mr. Andrews thinks there will be no opposition to Plummer's candidacy, despite the efforts of Representative Hays of Butler county to impress his friends throughout the state that he really is a candidate. The leaders believe Hays is too much of a politician to push his candidacy when he reaches here and learns that all the leaders are pledged to Plummer.

Congressman Bingham of Philadelphia is working on a draft of the platform, which will be whipped into shape at a conference of the leaders on Tuesday. Senator Knox is expected here on Tuesday and if he consents to serve as chairman of the convention, it is thought he will be accorded this honor.

Penrose and Durham will meet with the governor to discuss the Philadelphia "ripper" bills and other legislation still in his hands before they return to Philadelphia. The "ripper" bills will not be disposed of until after the advocates of the measures have been heard on Wednesday.

The governor has learned from a careful compilation of the appropriation bills that appropriations to the state's public and private charities exceed the estimates of the house and senate leaders at the close of the session and that it will be necessary to make a heavier reduction in them to keep within the estimated state revenues of $36,000,000 for the next two years than either he or the leaders expected. This is one of the subjects which will be discussed at his conference with Penrose and Durham.

CORN MEAL PUFFS.

Secret of How to Bake Them Will Be Explained at Today's Pure Food Show.

The new feature of the pure food show, the cooking lectures, will be started this afternoon when Miss M. O. McGowin will speak on "Baking Powder Preparations," and will make baking powder biscuit and corn meal puffs on the stage of Old City hall. These are two common, every day articles of food, but it is surprising how many different ways there are of baking them. Every woman will be curious to know how Miss McGowin bakes them, and it is expected that there will be a good crowd in Old City hall when she commences at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The Homestead Library band will furnish the music this week, and Director P. Dolin has selected an admirable program for his first concert this afternoon. It follows:

C. N. McCullough, a mechanical engineer of the Maryland Steel Company, which has its plant at Sparrows Point, left for home yesterday after inspecting the Edgar Thomson Steel works. Mr. McCullough said his company expected to spend $2,000,000 at Sparrows Point in building and equipping a blast furnace and steel mill.

By reason of the fact that The Safe Deposit and Trust Company of Pittsburgh, Fourth avenue and Wood street, is managed by able and experienced financiers it is able to secure for estates committed to its care more profitable investments, consistent with safety, than an individual could ordinarily secure.

RAILWAYS MERGER SYNDICATE'S PLAN

Hollins-Zimmerman People to Get Erie and Negotiating for Louisville & Nashville.

NOW HAVE OTHER ROADS

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

TOLEDO, O., April 23.—The Hollins-Zimmerman syndicate, in control of the Great Central lines, is gradually acquiring, by purchase or lease, new lines of railway, and when their gigantic scheme of mergers is completed they will dominate a system which will be one of the most important in the world.

It is possible that some of the deals for purchase now under negotiation will fail, notably that of the Louisville & Nashville railway, but if the deal for outright purchase fails, a traffic deal providing for through freight and passenger trains between important cities will be concluded, so Banker H. B. Hollins states. The Great Central people will build up a community-of-interests system which will take rank with the Harriman, the Hill and the Vanderbilt communities as one of the chief factors in transportation. It will be a most active competitor of the Vanderbilt system—more so than that of any other system.

The purchase of the Ann Arbor and Detroit Southern by interests closely allied to the Great Central and the merger of these two properties has been related. One of the members of the Hollins-Zimmerman syndicate recently informed a Pere Marquette man that "The Erie railroad will eventually be taken over as Mr. Morgan desires it. We are now figuring on buying the Louisville & Nashville railway, and if we do not buy it outright, it will become a member of the group by strong traffic deals."

Sometime ago, when the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railway was rumored sold, President Zimmerman was quoted as saying, "No, the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton has not been sold. We are buying railroads, not selling them."

When the general scheme is worked out the Great Central system will extend from Lake Superior to the Gulf of Mexico, and from St. Louis to the Atlantic seaboard.

The first step scheduled after the Ann Arbor-Detroit Southern merger is completed will be the closing of the Erie railway deal. The Louisville & Nashville negotiations will then be closed, and the new community of interests will have established itself. The roads will be operated separately.

STRONG MAN EATS THREE DOZEN EGGS AT SITTING

Neil C. McFadden Proves a Gastronomic Wonder, Experiencing No Inconvenience After Repast.

Neil C. McFadden, at one time with Sandow, the strong man, at present an advertising agent in this city, yesterday morning went to the Hotel Joyce in Ferry street, across from the Wabash depot, and asked for three dozen eggs, soft boiled. They were served to him and he consumed the entire "setting" with evident relish.

Miss May Marlowe, the waitress, at first thought McFadden was joking when he gave her his unusual Easter order, but finally went to the kitchen and ordered the eggs. The chef would only put out six at first, but was finally convinced McFadden meant business. Six eggs at a time were kept hot in the kettle, the waitress carrying them out to McFadden until the required number was reached. McFadden had secured a large oyster bowl and broke the eggs himself, until 36 had been opened. He then began eating, and disposed of them and some bread and butter in about 20 minutes, going to bed immediately afterward.

This was about 7 o'clock in the morning. McFadden slept until 1 o'clock, when he was awakened by a friend who thought he might be sick. McFadden then went out and for a noon-day lunch ate six more, flanked by a supply of bread, butter and coffee.

McFadden has been known to arise in the morning and eat a half dozen eggs and a large steak for breakfast. He is stopping at the Metropole hotel in Fourth avenue, whose proprietor, on learning of McFadden's feat, regretted the fact that his restaurant was closed on Sunday, inasmuch as he had probably missed a good order.

POLICE TO MAKE IT HOT FOR POOL ROOM LOAFERS

Will Enforce New State Law Forbidding Boys Under 18 Years in Gaming Places.

The new state law forbidding the presence of youths under 18 years of age in billiard rooms and bowling alleys, will be vigorously enforced in Pittsburgh. The matter has already been discussed by Director Moore of the department of public safety, with Superintendents Wallace and McQuaide, and measures will be taken immediately toward investigating those places where boys found a loafing spot before the bill became a law.

"It is a wise piece of legislation," said Superintendent McQuaide last night, "and provides a prompt prevention of crime. Youngsters find associates in some pool rooms that are quite as bad as any of the evil companions who could be found in saloons. There are some pool rooms that are seldom rid of the idle and worthless, and boys who come in contact with them are easily led astray. The pool room loafer makes a good workhouse candidate, and the new law makes it possible for the police and detectives to nip his nomination in the bud. This we shall proceed to do."

TO ARRANGE DAY FOR THE ORPHANS

Plan to Take Them Riding in Automobiles to Be Launched This Week.

WILL BE GLORIOUS OUTING

The Orphans' Automobile day project will be launched this week and the arrangements for giving the children of the orphanages of the city and vicinity a day's outing as guests of the Automobile club completed. Secretary W. Linford Smith of the club invites representatives of the orphanages to meet officers of the club at his office, 1120 Farmers' Bank building, Thursday of this week, at 1 o'clock. The exact number of children over six years of age, and the exact time and place where they can be taken can in this way be ascertained with certainty.

The first thing to determine is whether those in charge of these institutions favor the idea, and suggestions are sought from them as to the best manner of carrying out the idea. In other cities the project has met with much favor. In New York it was thought a good idea to include the brothers and sisters of the children in the orphanages who are not in the institutions, which would make the occasion doubly enjoyable to the little ones.

It is desired that the orphanages communicate with Secretary Smith, not later than Wednesday next, their intentions in the matter in any event, whether they intend to be represented at the meeting or not. A letter or postal card addressed to W. Linford Smith, Secretary of the Automobile club of Pittsburgh, room 1120 Farmers' Bank building, will indicate to the officers of the club how the idea is viewed by these institutions.

When Orphans' Automobile day was first spoken of in The Gazette Fred Ingersoll, head of Luna park, at once offered it for the day. The entertainment of the children by the Luna park people would be on the grandest scale. For the day the tots would be their guests, and not only would all the many amusements be free to them, but they would also be entertained at a picnic luncheon and all the tempting things of a picnic basket would be generously provided by Mr. Ingersoll.

UNITED LABOR LEAGUE WORKS FOR HALF HOLIDAY

Efforts Being Made to Secure Co-Operation of Employers in Granting Respite from Saturday Toil.

At a special meeting of the United Labor league on Sunday evening, May 14, the Rev. C. L. Thurgood, pastor of the Central Christian church, will make an address in behalf of the Saturday half-holiday movement. The league will give its indorsement to the cause and a campaign of education will be inaugurated to enlist support from employers throughout Allegheny county. For the present no united effort will be made toward securing legislation on the subject. The granting of the Saturday half-holiday for working people is largely a matter of sentiment and the league will endeavor to secure the greatest number of shopkeepers and employers of labor to join in the custom, which several large Pittsburgh department stores observed during the summer months.

The laundry drivers' organization last night joined the United Labor league. This will increase the league's membership with a number exceeding 150. J. J. Gallagher of the steamfitters' union, was elected vice president to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of J. J. Kane. C. P. Hays was elected a member of the board of trustees.

Another Speaker Accepts.

Another speaker has been added to the list for the Americus Republican club dinner at the Hotel Schenley next Thursday night. A letter accepting an invitation to speak was received last night from Gen. Thomas S. Hopkins of Washington, D. C., past commander of the department of the Potomac, Grand Army of the Republic. Gen. Hopkins' toast will be "The Enlisted Man."

SCENE OF BEAUTY AT SHORE PARADE

Thousands of Richly Gowned Women on the Atlantic City Boardwalk.

MANY PITTSBURGHERS THERE

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Young's Ocean Pier,
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., April 23.

Beauty and fashion gathered here today and made the boardwalk a scene of splendor during the annual Easter parade. Thousands of pretty women richly dressed and attended by their frock-coated and high-hatted cavaliers flowed out of the hotels onto the plank promenade which scintillated with color under the beams of the sun. From early morning until the fall of twilight the esplanade was filled from rail to rail with the promenading throng, while from vantage points along the route a gallery of thousands watched the display and commented on the loveliness of the gowns and hats paraded for their inspection. The evening turnout was one of the greatest demonstrations of American beauty and fashion ever seen here and the display of gems under the thousands of electric lights was a dazzling sight.

The crowd on the boardwalk at noon was the greatest ever borne by that structure. The costuming of the women in the throng was most elaborate and ranged in material from organdies of summer texture to robes of satin and velvet costing thousands of dollars. Blue and violet were the favorite colors, although the showing of white frocks was one of the features of the show.

The polo hat, latest evolution of the city milliners, was in evidence by thousands, while picture hats with drooping plumes, and lace bonnets and sun hats set off many a youthful belle. The sensation of the day was created by two handsome girls who appeared on the walk at the heighth of the parade leading bull terriers of bluest blood. Broadcloth blankets, matching in color the gowns of the girls, covered the animals. The girls appeared to enjoy the ripple of excitement caused in their passage.

In the absence of Gov. Stokes of New Jersey, who was called away suddenly, former Gov. White of West Virginia took official precedence as the head of the procession. United States Senator Burrows of Michigan was another notable who turned out with his colleagues, Senators Allo of Delaware and Elkins of West Virginia.

Miss Amye Wilson and Miss Irene Warner, who were on the boardwalk with Mr. and Mrs. George C. Wilson of Pittsburgh, wore striking gowns. Miss J. W. Rhea of Pittsburgh was in the early-morning turnout and Miss H. E. Watrous appeared with Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Meall. A quartet of girls who arrived from Pittsburgh in time to join the procession included Miss Jeanette Brown and Miss Brown of Pittsburgh and Miss Jeanette Garner and Miss Virginia Garner of Denver. Mrs. S. Jarvis Adams and Mrs. Samuel McKee of Pittsburgh were with them on the walk. Miss Kirk and Miss Edith Frazer were among the prettiest of the younger girls and Miss Anna Berger, who wore a white flannel dress with a plumed hat, attracted much favorable attention. Miss Verner and Miss Catheryne Verner were in a party which included Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Verner, James Parke Verner, Mrs. J. W. Kirke and Mrs. Sarah B. Lamberton. Other well-known Pittsburgh people were Charles J. Graham, Merrill C. Morrow and Clarence Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Brown, Mrs. J. [illegible] Kirk, F. Kennedy Ray and George Heard and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bowes. Henry Lloyd and F. B. Carter, who arrived late last night, were with P. H. Creighton of Pittsburgh.

WOMAN IS MURDERED IN YARD OF HOME

Aged Servant Is Killed on Returning from Church—People Are Excited.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

MT. VERNON, O., April 23.—The body of Miss Miranda Bricker, aged 56 years, was found this morning lying under a tree in the grounds surrounding the home of Frank L. Fairchild, president of the C. & G. Cooper works, where Miss Bricker was employed as cook.

Miss Bricker attended confession at the Roman Catholic church Saturday evening and after visiting the home of a relative, took a car for home. On alighting she was compelled to walk about a block through a lonely part of the city. It is believed she was attacked just as she stepped inside the grounds of Mr. Fairchild's home. There was evidence that after desperate fighting the woman was dragged under a tree and then killed, her assailant using a club or stone. Miss Bricker's clothing was almost torn from her body. Shreds of her garments were found this morning scattered about the grounds. The murderer, after committing the crime, ran across a garden, leaving footprints which are being carefully guarded by the police.

The most intense excitement followed the discovery of the crime.

MRS. CARNEGIE GAVE $5,000 TO CHARITABLE LAUNDRY

BALTIMORE, April 23.—(Special.)—The new steam laundry of the House of Good Shepherd for colored girls on the Calvert road, near Franklin street, for which Mrs. Andrew Carnegie contributed $5,000, is now ready for occupancy. When the project of installing a laundry was first considered Sister Mary Agnus, superintendent at the home, wrote to Mrs. Carnegie for the contribution. In reply Mrs. Carnegie said she would send a check for $5,000 as soon as the laundry was under roof.

Early Morning Fire in Hill District.

For the past two years he has represented the Pittsburgh Plantation Company, whose offices are in the Columbia Bank building. A son died in this city a year ago and is buried in Homewood cemetery. The funeral will be from the home of Mrs. Jarret, 5012 Cypress street, on Tuesday.

In 1846 he moved to Greensburg and opened a blacksmith shop, which he conducted until his death, and which is now the oldest business place in Greensburg. He was a charter member of Kedron Commandery No. 25, Knights [illegible] the Knights of Honor and of the Evangelical Lutheran church. He was a Republican since the organization of the party and took an active interest in political affairs. He is survived by his widow, Rebecca Potts, and five sons—Sidney J., D. Reamer, G. Reuben, William J. and James A. Potts. He was a brother-in-law of Capt. Sidney J. Branoff of Allegheny.

FATAL ACCIDENT TO TOURING AUTO

Man Is Killed and His Fiancee and Others Are Injured in New York.

CAR STRIKES THE MACHINE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, April 23.—One man was killed and two women badly hurt when a big sight-seeing automobile, crowded with passengers, crashed into a high billboard fence at Eighth avenue and Fifty-seventh street today. The streets were thronged with Easter promenaders at the time of the accident and police reserves had to be called out to keep the crowd in check. The chauffeur of the machine asserts it was struck by an Eighth avenue trolley car, was skidded along the tracks and that in this way he temporarily lost control of the brakes. The big automobile plunged across the sidewalk and into the fence with great force.

Charles P. Koster, 21 years old, a business man of this city, was killed, and Miss Anna Finnerman, 18 years old, and Mrs. Angelina Romano, 45 years old, were injured.

Koster and Miss Finnerman were on the front seat of the automobile. They were engaged to be married, the ceremony being set for next week. Mrs. Romano was seated in a little fruit stand near the corner of the fence and when both stand and fence were demolished by the automobile, she was caught and crushed beneath the falling timbers.

More than 40 persons were on the heavy vehicle when the accident took place and that more were not injured is regarded as remarkable. The automobile is one of half a hundred used in this city to convey visitors from out of town to points of interest about the city.

Following the collision between the street car and the automobile, the excitement among the passengers, many of whom were women, was so great it is impossible to determine whether Koster and Miss Finnerman were hurled from their places or whether they jumped from the vehicle, as they saw an accident was unavoidable. Koster's skull was fractured and he died within a few minutes.

The injured were taken to Roosevelt hospital, where it is said they will recover.

PUGNACIOUS FOREIGNERS SPEND LIVELY SUNDAY

Forty-Third Street Station Cells Filled With Disorderly Celebrants of the Easter Holiday.

The cells at No. 5 police station on Forty-third street were full last night of men, all foreigners, who had been arrested for Sunday fighting. One had his head broken by a beer bottle, two had been cut slightly and one had been arrested and a bloody knuckler had been found on his right hand.

John Boldroles and Stanny Saboloski were the first prisoners brought in. They live at Forty-eighth and Harrison streets and had a fight yesterday afternoon, and Boldroles hit Saboloski over the head with a beer bottle, laying his scalp open. Dr. C. Stein put six stitches in the gash and both men were locked up.

Frank Stening, John Police, Stan Polar, John Robable and Joseph Brokeway were brought in from 173 Thirty-fourth street, a Polish boarding house. There had been a general fight there and Police is said to have cut Stening on the left hand with a knife. Stening had his injury dressed at St. Francis hospital before he was locked up.

Another fight occurred in an Italian boarding house at 4827 Plum alley. Tony Bradoge and Mike Hermft had an argument over the Easter celebration and Hermit cut Brodage on the left hand with a knife. Both were arrested and Sergeant Brady Thompson dressed the wound, which is not serious.

TWO SCALES ARE PROPOSED.

Amalgamated Association Convention May Decide on Separate Agreements for Iron and Steel.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 23.—(Special.)—It is said that at the Detroit convention of the Amalgamated association, an effort will be made to have separate scales adopted for iron and steel. At the present time the scales are based on iron. This is one of the things which caused the strike at the American Steel Hoop Company, the concern attempting to regulate the price paid for steel after the Amalgamation refused to make a separate scale. The complete divorcing of the puddling and the finishing scales will be tried. At present they are too closely allied, the companies claim.

NEW CASTLE, April 23.—(Special.)—Nearly $1,000,000 will be expended by the Allegheny & Western railroad in building the connecting link which will permit the Bessemer & Lake Erie railroad to reach the United States Steel Corporation's plants in this city. The line will also be extended to West Pittsburgh to reach the big industries being erected there.

MAKES YOU ACHE ALL OVER

Ache all over? Feverish? Chilly? Just coming down with a hard cold? Where do you suppose it will settle? In the throat? That means hoarseness, sore throat, tonsillitis. In the chest? Then bronchitis, pneumonia, consumption. Do not let your cold settle. Break it up! Drive it out! Ask your doctor the best medicine for this. If he says Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, take it at once. If he has anything better, take that.

Public School Contributions to the Hospital Saturday and Sunday Association.

MAY EXCEED THE BANNER YEAR

Contributions from the public schools to the Hospital Saturday and Sunday association have been received. The total is $2,818.82, or $24.02 more than last year. There are still several schools to report, and it is hoped to exceed the record of 1903, the banner year, when the schools gave $2,869.00.

In Pittsburgh, with four schools yet to hear from, there was an increase of $82.84, and in Allegheny, with five schools, the gain is $11.24. The boroughs and townships show a decrease as yet but there are many schools to report that will overcome this.

Rivermen Are Active on Easter Sunday and Every Available Craft Is Used.

Easter Sunday was celebrated yesterday by rivermen by the shipment of nearly 6,000,000 bushels of coal. SEVERE BREAK IN PRICES SURPRISED WALL STREET

Cause of the Slump Lay in the Market Rather Than to an Adverse Development in Business.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, April 23.—There has been a substantial element in Wall street for several weeks that believed security values had been carried too high, but that there was nothing untoward at work which would warrant a change in speculative sentiment. Believing that prices were high, but that all signs pointed to higher prices, a large proportion of this party kept selling stocks on the advance, knowing from experience that the unexpected was likely to happen, notwithstanding the clear fields and bright skies surrounding the speculative future.

To those observers and operators the severe break in prices last week was as much a surprise as it was to the confident bull party who maintained that the stock market was merely beginning its advance. No one takes into calculation the trivial or important incident, as the case may be, which precipitated the unexpected decline. At the outset of the week the stock market, on the surface at least, contained none of the disintegrating influences at work which forced the salutary and important recession at the close. Shrewd operators, however, whether by intuition or long experience, could well have hazarded a chance that these reactionary influences were at work, as they inevitably are, when unreasonable and highly incautious speculation runs at flood tide.

There were many expert judges who expressed the opinion that the stock market toppled primarily of its own weight. The explanation was given that it was technically weak, and in the language of the street, "overbought." The cause, therefore, of the slump, in the judgment of many conservative bankers, lay in the market itself rather than to an adverse development in the business or financial world.

In the preceding week all the developments which go to make for confidence and substantial advances in values were present. The various iron and steel journals reported a most brilliant condition of affairs in the separate lines of business. The government reported a highly auspicious and promising condition of winter wheat, and trade estimates on the subject created the ground for the hope that the country would raise one of the largest winter wheat crops on record.

In the Oil Fields.

Producers are more interested in the continued decline of the oil market than field developments. The effect of the former on the industry is so far-reaching in the eastern fields that it has a depressing influence on both producer and operator. There is so little doing in development work that that branch of the industry claims the attention of none but those directly interested in the wells now drilling in the various fields.

The depression of the market is felt by every producer, and the owner of small wells is the one most sorely tried at this time. In old territory, where the wells do not average more than one-half barrel a day, the income is greatly reduced and the cost of operating the wells not decreased. The cut of 2 cents from the price of high-grade crude during the past week, instead of 3 cents, as has been the rule, inspires the hope that possibly it has now about touched bottom for the present at least.

It is well understood that there is little territory in the lower southwest that can be operated on the present price of crude. Operators claim that the price of drilling material and machinery is just as high now as when the market was at its highest. The average size of new wells has been growing smaller and the efforts to find new producing territory capable of furnishing a higher average production have not materialized. Development work in the lower southwest has reached that point where the drilling in of a well with an initial production of 100 barrels a day is regarded as something out of the ordinary.

At present there are not a dozen wells in the West Virginia fields that have an individual production of 100 or more barrels a day. Shooting, for a short time, increases the production of some above that point, but in a few days they subside to or below their previous production. Southeastern Ohio cannot lay claim to a single well that is now producing 100 or more barrels a day. This is a condition almost unprecedented in that producing section.

The best producer of the week was found in the fifth sand territory, near Fairview, in Marion county, West Virginia. It is the South Penn Oil Company's No. 3 on the J. G. Haught farm, an old well drilled down from the Big Injun. The well produced 200 barrels the first 15 hours after it was drilled into the pay, and at the end of the fourth day was still holding up at better than 100 barrels. The size of this strike is above the late average of wells in that district. There is some new work under way in this district, but for the most part the work consists of drilling down old wells that are no longer profitable producers from the upper formation. The prospects for a fifth sand pool in the Littleton district, Wetzel county, were somewhat reduced by the completion of two dusters during the week. McDermott & Co. got one on the Thomas farm and the South Penn Oil Company the other on the M. E. Lemasters farm.

Near Burton, Church's district, Wetzel county, the Fisher Oil Company drilled in a well on the John Maple farm that is good for 40 barrels a day from the Maxon sand. This is quite above the average for that district. In the past about 20 barrels a day has been the rule.

Near Bula, Battelle district, Monongalia county, the South Penn Company shot its old No. 1 on the S. S. Eddy farm and increased its production to 300 barrels the first 24 hours after it was given the dose of high explosive fluid.

The Salem district, Harrison county, completed a number of new wells during the week. The best of the lot was the South Penn Oil Company's No. 3 on the W. R. Johnson farm, which started at 100 barrels after it was drilled through the Gordon and shot. The town lot development on Salem Fork presented three small producers. The Salem district is now the most active in new work of any of the deep-sand developments. West of Mannington, in the 30-foot development, there is a considerable amount of new work starting on the west side, in the vicinity of the Freehold Oil and Gas Company's good producer on the Benjamin Grubb farm. It looks now as though the extension opened by this well would furnish a number of good locations. The Freehold Company is starting two on the same farm and the Delmar Oil Company four on the J. L. & A. J. Hays farm. This pool was the banner discovery of last year and for a time attracted much attention. Some of the first wells completed were gushers, but all have now declined to producers little above the average of wells in the old districts.

For some months there has been a marked falling off in development work in the shallow sand districts. Under existing conditions this class of territory should hold out special inducements for the reason that it can be operated at less outlay than in the deep territory. Scarcity of producing territory and the fact that the old fields have been thoroughly developed has caused a decline in new work. There is not a locality outside of Calhoun county that is claiming any attention. In the last-named county there are wildcat operations, inspired by the hope of finding a new pool.

Operations on the Ohio side have steadily declined. The defining of the old pools and the failure to find new is responsible for the slump. The work under way is scattered over a wide area and consists principally of drilling old locations in the old fields. There are no new pools to stimulate new work. Southeast of Jerusalem, in Monroe county, the Southern Oil Company's Big Lime producer on the W. E. Moore farm is holding up at 65 barrels a day, and it is hoped that this strike may lead up to the development of a pool.

All hope of a Gordon sand development at Mackburg, in Washington county, has been abandoned. Another failure was charged up to that district during the week. The Chester Hill district, in Morgan county, made a try for a producer in the Gordon and met with the same result.

REVIEW OF THE WEEK IN THE LOCAL MARKETS

Flour Drops to $6 a Barrel and May Go Lower This Week. Other Lines Firm.

Every line of local markets enjoyed an excellent run of business last week, preparatory to the ending of Lent. The higher price of the butter market and the scarcity of that article hurt business in that line some, but all other lines sold well.

Flour made a heavy drop Saturday, getting down to the $6 mark. A further decline is looked for this week. Canned goods also dropped Saturday, and the cost of living is materially reduced so far as the wholesale houses are concerned.

Green goods held their own all week and prices were advanced in some lines. Fruits and produce were firm. Cherries are the newest thing in the fruit line and are coming is quite plentifully from California. They are selling at $2.50 and $4.00 a box of about nine pounds of fruit.

The egg market held all prices weak, although the market was really a little shaky. Heavy receipts by river caused the price to be marked down a little, but not enough to make any difference to the retail buyers. At the wharf, however, there was some difficulty in selling them at 17½ cents a dozen by the case.

HAY AND GRAIN.

Receipts.

Receipts of hay and grain Saturday were as follows: Pennsylvania lines, 23 cars hay, 1 car corn, 2 cars oats, 1 car feed, 1 car straw. Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, 1 car hay, 1 car oats, 1 car oats and corn. Baltimore & Ohio, 2 cars hay, 2 cars oats.

The hay and grain market during the past week has not been active, the uncertainty of the wheat situation in Chicago having a decided effect on the local market in other lines. Ear corn and straw receipts are about equal to the demand. The same is true of oats and hay, and as long as this condition prevails there is not much prospect of an advance.

PITTSBURGHERS INVITED TO ESTABLISH PLANTS

The Government of New South Wales Wants Iron and Steel Industries.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, April 23.—Pittsburghers are being invited by the New South Wales government to construct extensive iron and steel plants in that country. These projects are the first of their description in Australia. The authorities stipulate that practically all, 90 per cent, of the pig iron to be used in the plants must be produced from Australian ores.

The Crucible Steel Company of America has requested to be furnished with further official data on the subject. The Midvale Steel Company is also reported to be interested in the scheme.

The New South Wales government undertakes to draw from the plants all the iron and steel plants in that country, various departments. The conditions of the contract provide for blast furnaces and all the machinery required to produce steel rails, plates, bars, shapes, galvanized sheet iron, wire, etc. It is further provided that should any change be made in the tariff position of pig iron during the continuance of the contract the amount represented by such change will be added to or deducted from the rates for the items in which imported pig iron has been used.

PERFECT WEATHER HELPED TO MAKE PERFECT EASTER

Church in Morning, Walk Through Parks, and Then Cozy Corner With the Sunday Gazette.

It was a perfect Easter Sunday. The weather, the music, the flowers, the clothes, the hat, combined to render the season just what it should be. The bulk of the people went to services in the morning, many went to the parks in the afternoon, but many more stayed at home, ensconced in cozy corners, with The Gazette, their "steady Sunday regular," at hand. And the paper yesterday met the expectations of all of its old and new friends. Its fiction, its special articles, its news columns and its funny pages were made up of just the proper seasoning for a day of Sunday recreation. And the menu gets more extended, with a more delicate flavor, each succeeding week.

It is announced that the main squadron of Japan, under Admiral Togo, will assemble south of Formosa. M. Delcasse has reconsidered his determination to resign from the French cabinet. People of Scotland are pleased that James Dalrymple has been invited to Chicago to give instructions on how to run a municipal railway.

Railroads lose money by hauling grain, according to testimony given by President Tuttle before the interstate commerce committee. No eulogies will be delivered at the funeral of Senator Platt, in accordance with his request. An Italian priest led his striking countrymen in prayer and averted violence. A delegation of French railway men has sailed from Havre to attend the international railroad congress, which will be held at Washington. Baldwin locomotive works has received a large contract from New South Wales. William C. Wells was elected chief clerk of the bureau of American republics, defeating the choice of President Roosevelt. A member of the interstate commerce commission refuted the statements of a railroad president that the present laws are sufficient to regulate rates.

Senator Knox is the choice of the Republican leaders for chairman of the Republican state convention to be held this week at Harrisburg. Gov. Pennypacker signed 29 bills and vetoed six.

Steel workers at Braddock, Rankin and Duquesne found wage increase in their pay envelopes without any previous notice. Select Councilman Armstrong of Allegheny asked court to quash writ of quo warranto as he claims to have served his punishment on conviction of corrupt solicitation. Orphans' court judge asked to sit in court of common pleas No. 2 next week, and a constitutional test of the Watkins bill may follow. Senator Knox has been elected chairman of the local delegation to the Republican state convention. The "grafting" cases against Police Captain Wilson of Allegheny come up for trial today. Company I, First United States infantry, arrived at the Allegheny arsenal. Finance committee of councils held up bills of Morris Knowles, which Controller Larkin had refused to pay. Trio of accidents killed six and injured six and left a trail of 15 orphans in their wake. Manufacturers' association has announced a voluntary wage increase in which about 6,000 workmen will participate.

The Pirates made a fine up-hill fight against St. Louis, and won by a score of 5 to 4 before 10,000 people. The first installment of baseball averages shows some queer things among the batters of the league. The Brunswick team has won the championship in the City Bowling league, and will likely carry off the honors in the County league. Fighting is in a peculiar state on the coast and three amateurs admit that they have donned the gloves for cash.

Stock exchanges at home and abroad were closed. The weekly statements of the New York banks were favorable, showing an increase in every item. There was a violent break in the May wheat option in Chicago.

Return Money to Treasury.

INDIANA, PA., April 23.—(Special.)—The county commissioners made their first payment at a late hour last evening to the county treasurer of the amount recently surcharged to them by the auditors. The amount of this payment was $2,022, while the amount surcharged was $8,869. It is said the amount returned is what has been collected from two of the parties, who are accused of overcharging the commissioners for work done or supplies furnished during the last year. It is said there are more payments to follow.

Murder Is Suspected.

FAIRMONT, W. VA., April 23.—Lewis Nutter, aged 30 years, whose body was found cut in two on the tracks of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad at Monongah this morning, is believed to have been murdered. Nutter, Clarence Leeper and William Carlton had been drinking together and left Monongah for Nutter's home late Saturday night. Leeper was arrested and placed in jail pending an investigation.

PANAMA HEALTH IMPROVES.

Chief Sanitary Officer Declares the Same Sick Rate Would Be Considered Favorable Anywhere.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The March health report of Col. W. C. Gorgas, chief sanitary officer of the Isthmian canal zone, received here today, shows a steady improvement in condition there. There were about 9,000 employes of the commission at the end of the month. The sick in hospitals numbered 153 and the total deaths for the month were 11. This is equal to a rate of 14 a thousand, a rate which Col. Gorgas says would be considered favorable anywhere.

In the 30 days ended with March there has been four cases of yellow fever throughout the whole isthmus, of which one was in Panama. In the previous 30 days there had been 12 cases. Each house in Panama city has been fumigated, a great many of them several times.

Wages Are Advanced.

NEW SALARY ACT FOR THE BURGESS

Borough Rulers Can Be Paid in Accordance With Population of Municipality.

STIPENDS IN THIS COUNTY

There are 60 odd boroughs in Allegheny county and each one has a burgess. These officials can have their salaries graded in accordance with the population of the municipalities they rule.

The recent legislature had this law placed upon the statute books of the state:

> That the boroughs of this commonwealth shall have full power and authority to pay a salary to the chief burgess thereof, such salary to be fixed by appropriate ordinance, and not to exceed the sum of $50 annually for each 1,000 inhabitants or majority fraction, residents in such boroughs, as ascertained by the last United States decennial census.

If this act is put into force the following would be the maximum salaries paid in the boroughs of this county:

Aspinwall	$ 50	Knoxville	$200
Avalon	100	McKees Rocks	300
Bellevue	150	Millvale	350
Ben Avon	50	Montooth	50
Brackenridge	50	Mt. Oliver	100
Bridgeville	50	Munhall	50
Carnegie	350	North Braddock	350
Carrick	50	Oakdale	50
Cheswick	50	Oakmont	100
Clairton	50	Osburn	50
Coraopolis	150	Pitcairn	150
Crafton	100	Port Vue	100
Dravosburg	50	Rankin	200
Duquesne	450	Sewickley	200
East McKeesport	50	Sharpsburg	350
East Pittsburgh	150	Sheraden	150
Edgewood	50	Spring Garden	50
Elizabeth	100	Swissvale	100
Emsworth	50	Tarentum	250
Esplen	100	Turtle Creek	150
Etna	250	Verona	100
Glassport	50	Versailles	50
Glenfield	50	Wall	50
Greentree	50	West Elizabeth	50
Hays	50	Whitaker	50
Haysville	50	West Homestead	50
Heidelburg	50	West Liberty	50
Homestead	650	Wilkinsburg	600
Ingram	50	Wilmerding	200

This would make a total annual salary list of $8,790. Most of these municipalities are so located that they could easily become a part of Greater Pittsburgh, and then they would not need to bother with chief burgesses or the payment of their salaries.

EXPERIENCE OF A WOMAN ON FIRST EASTER DAY

Dr. W. R. Thompson Preaches on Love and Devotion of Mary Magdalene Before Christ's Tomb.

"A Woman's Easter Experience" was the subject of the sermon delivered in the Eleventh United Presbyterian church, West End, last night by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. W. R. Thompson. The speaker took for his text John xx:18: "Mary Magdalina cometh and telleth the disciples, 'I have seen the Lord,'" and said in part:

Since that time how many, like her, have stood outside the tomb feeling that it is the most sacred place on earth to them, and have entered a fellowship of tears with Mary Magdalina? Her earnest pleadings were rewarded by beholding the object of her search, hearing His voice, and so eager was she in her devotion that she was ready to render a humble service to the one whom her soul adored. But Christ repulsed the ardent, eager demonstration, and tells her to go and tell the good news to His brethren, saying to them: "I ascend unto My Father, and your Father; and to My God and your God."

He would impress upon her the fact that it is more blessed, more vital a matter that she go tell to those wounded hearts, among His friends and disciples, those cast down, because of His death, the glad news of His resurrection, a messenger of the joyous intelligence, that God is His Father, and that He had come off victorious over death.

It is significant that Christ made Mary His messenger, on this memorable Easter morning, that He should choose as His herald of the great truth one who had been notable in sin, from whom He cast out so many devils, selecting her doubtless as an illustration of the fullness of His pardon of one who had fallen so low, the completeness of His forgivenness. Assuredly a comforting fact.

And her love was so ardent, so deep, and doubtless Christ recognized the depth of her love, for while John loved Him much, Mary loved Him most, and love will look after and discover Him where none else can. What a blessed, sweet message Mary was commissioned to carry to those disciples—brotherhood with Christ—assurance of their personal sonship to the Father. Christ had told them of the relation which He sustained to them as friends, "Ye are My disciples if ye do whatsoever I command you."

Want Branch of Y. M. C. A.

The board of control of the Christian Men's association of the West End met yesterday afternoon for the purpose of furthering the project of establishing a branch of the Central Young Men's Christian association. Horner Wood presided. The board is considering the advisability of leasing the Metropolitan hall, Steuben street, for permanent quarters. A committee of five was appointed to arrange the details. It was announced that 100 had bound themselves to pay $5 yearly in support of the organization.

WELCOME THE PASTOR BACK TO HIS PULPIT

Braddock Congregation Extends Hearty Easter Greeting to the Rev. Dr. Turner.

The Rev. Dr. William Pitt Turner, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, Parker avenue, Braddock, was given a hearty Easter greeting yesterday morning, and also in the evening when he conducted services in his church. It was the first time Dr. Turner has been in his pulpit for 10 weeks. Within that time Dr. Turner was near death's door, a fact which only a few of the 750 members of his congregation were aware of until within the past several days. It was feared by his family and some of his friends who knew of Dr. Turner's condition that he would lose his sight. He returned on Friday evening from Philadelphia with Mrs. Turner, where they have spent the last 10 weeks for treatment.

The Rev. Dr. William Pitt Turner.

The services yesterday morning were more impressive than they have been for many months. The church was beautifully decorated, an additional bouquet of Easter lilies occupying a place on the pastor's desk, placed there by the Epworth league chapter of the church.

At the close of the morning service, Dr. Turner was surrounded by practically his entire congregation and given an ovation. There was a splendid Easter service of music from an augmented choir of 30 voices, and some of the best soloists in Western Pennsylvania. Dr. Turner spoke from the text, "He Is Not Here; He Is Risen. What the Resurrection Means to Us." He spoke with all his old-time enthusiasm.

Dr. Turner is one of the members of the Pittsburgh conference of the Methodist Episcopal church who form the "Old Guard" with Dr. James Mechem, Dr. Latshaw McGuire, and several others. He is past three score and ten, but is hale and vigorous. A dozen or more in the congregation remembered him as a youth when he went to Braddock 40 years ago to old Sellers Methodist Episcopal chapel.

RESURRECTION CANTATA GIVEN BY CHURCH CHOIR

The new sacred cantata, "The Resurrection According to St. John," was given for the first time in Pittsburgh last night by the choir of the Fourth Presbyterian church, Evaline street. It was given under the direction of Mrs. E. E. Hunt, organist. The choir is composed of Miss Willa Cunningham, soprano; Miss Mary E. Jones, contralto; J. S. Willard, tenor, and Louis H. Kennedy, baritone.

PASCHAL FEAST IS CELEBRATED

Resurrection of the Savior Commemorated With Solemn Services in Local Churches.

SERVICES AT THE EPIPHANY

Easter, the feast day commemorative of the resurrection of our Lord, was celebrated yesterday with all the ecclesiastical pomp and ceremony considered appropriate to one of the three great festivals of the Christian year. As the day on which Christ rose from the dead, it is considered by many the greatest of all festivals, although in the solemnization of services by the Catholic church it is placed alongside Christmas and Pentecost or Whitsunday, the first as being the birthday of the founder of Christianity, the second as being the real beginning of the church, when the apostles received the holy spirit and the gift of tongues, and were sent forth to preach.

In the Catholic and Episcopalian churches Easter was observed with the religious ceremonies peculiar to them, and in other Protestant churches the music and the sermons were commemorative of the great occasion.

Of the Catholic churches of the diocese of Pittsburgh the center of interest was the Epiphany, temporarily used as the Cathedral, the new St. Paul's not being completed and the church authorities having no expectation of holding services in it until the end of August or the beginning of September.

Bishop Canevin Was Celebrant.

At the Epiphany yesterday Bishop Canevin celebrated pontifical high mass and gave the papal blessing. The church was crowded at this service, for the Epiphany is attended not only by its parishioners, but also by hundreds from all parts of the city, to whom the cathedral was the parish church of their choice.

The high altar of the church was decorated with flowers, in striking contrast to the bareness characterizing it during the days preceding, when the main altar was stripped of its decorations and draped in black and the Host was sheltered on the side altar. Just before the hour for mass to begin a procession of choir boys and altar boys emerged from the sacristy and, threading the aisles of the church, returned to the sanctuary. The celebrant of the mass was Bishop Canevin; the chancellor of the diocese, the Rev. William Kittell, was assistant priest; the fathers of the Holy Ghost appeared as deacons of honor; the Rev. Lawrence A. O'Connell served as deacon of the mass and the Rev. Hugh Boyle as sub-deacon. The Rev. Miles Sweeney was the master of ceremonies. Father O'Connell preached, his subject being "Resurrection."

Papal Blessing Bestowed.

After mass Bishop Canevin gave the papal benediction, which carries with it the plenary indulgence to those who, having fulfilled the prescribed pontifical observances, are in condition to receive this remission of the temporal punishment due for sin. Solemn pontifical vespers were celebrated by Bishop Canevin in the evening, followed by the benediction of the Host.

The music, in strict accordance with the commands of the pope issued in the famous encyclical on church music, was peculiarly appropriate and solemn. During the procession before mass, the processional, "Christ is Risen," was sung; as the bishop entered the sanctuary the men in the choir loft sang, "Behold the High Priest;" during the vesting of the bishop the choir boys sang the "Story of the Resurrection," an ancient hymn. The music of the mass was composed by the famous modern composer, F. X. Witt, and the changeable parts of the mass were sung in Gregorian chant, written by various composers. At vespers the "Magnificat" and psalms were sung antiphonally by the congregation in the body of the church and the choir of men in the loft. The music was in charge of Joseph Otten, the director and organist.

Heard the First Rendition.

The first rendition of the "Rosari Santissimi" mass was celebrated yesterday in the church of the Holy Rosary and an unusual number of persons attended, for the mass was composed by J. Vick O'Brien, formerly organist and director at the church and now in Berlin, finishing his musical studies. Mr. O'Brien is but 26 years old and is the composer of several successful secular melodies. His home is in Atlantic avenue. J. E. Hepp, the director of the choir of the church, conducted the mass.

The male choir at the Holy Trinity church, Center avenue and Crawford street, sang Adler's mass in A, for four male voices and organ. The congregational singing, which has been a feature of certain services of this church, was never better than yesterday afternoon. Mitterer's mass was sung at St. Mary's church, Forty-sixth street. W. D. O'Donnell is the director of the choir and Miss Laura Blanchard the organist.

It was announced at the Epiphany church that hereafter, until the cathedral is finished, there will be two masses at 9 o'clock, in order to obviate the congestion at the regular 9 o'clock and 10 o'clock masses. Instead, therefore, of there being only 9 o'clock mass in the basement of the church on Sunday, mass will be said at the same hour in the body of the church.

CITY MAY HAVE TO PAY BOARD

New Law May Relieve County from Maintaining Many Prisoners.

WARDEN LEWIS IS GUESSING

Pittsburgh, Allegheny, McKeesport and the boroughs may have to pay for the maintenance of prisoners convicted of violating ordinances that they commit to the county jail. This expense is now borne by the county.

Warden Edward Lewis has secured a copy of a new act of assembly which may or may not effect this county. He will bring the matter to the attention of the prison board. If it is decided the law applies to this county, Warden Lewis will have to do a good deal of bookkeeping to keep his accounts straight.

The new act reads as follows:

> That hereafter when a prisoner shall be committed to any county jail or prison in this commonwealth for the non-payment of fine or penalty imposed for the violation of a city or borough ordinance or an ordinance of a township of the first class, the expense of maintaining of such prisoner during his commitment shall be borne by the city, borough or township of the first class to which fine was payable; and the county in which such city, borough or township is located shall not be liable to the sheriff for such maintenance.

There is a clause regulating all acts or parts of acts inconsistent. In this county the sheriff has nothing to do with the management of the jail, except that he is a member of the prison board.

In 1904 there were 8,387 summary conviction prisoners committed to the jail. In the opinion of Warden Lewis, if this act effects this county, most of these prisoners would have come under the terms of the law. It costs about 30 cents a day to maintain a prisoner. This amount is ascertained by figuring in the cost of food, salaries, light and all of the expenses of the institution.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHICAGO, April 23.—Pittsburgh lost to the Cubs today, 1 to 0. The solitary run was presented by Pitcher Phillipe. Brown was at the bat and had fanned the air twice. Then Phillipe made a wild pitch. Brown struck at it, and made two bases while the catcher was chasing it. A hit brought him home, and the 20,000 fans who had assembled went wild with joy.

The Pirates played fast ball and set the pace for the locals at the beginning. Brown was generous in giving bases on balls, giving four. Phillipe, though erratic at times, pitched in good form.

Clymer, the first man to bat for the Pirates, filed to McCarthy. Clarke went out on a short fly to Tinker. Beaumont was the first recipient of a pass and McBride singled to center. Clancy sent a grass-cutter to McCarthy and was put out at first by a quick throw.

For the Cubs, Casey struck out and Maloney went out from McBride to Clancy. Barry singled to left and McCarthy flied out to McBride. No runs.

In the second inning Tinker was hit by a pitched ball and after Hoffman struck out was a victim of a double play, when Kling popped a fly to McBride. The Pirates never reached second base in their part of the inning, going out on short bunts to the pitcher and shortstop.

After retiring two men in the fourth Brown again walked Ritchey, and when Peitz sent a long drive to center it looked like the victors would score. The hopes of the Pirates went into the ascendency when Phillippe caught one of Brown's low ones on the end of his bat and sent it skimming over the pitcher's head. Hoffman made a left-handed catch, which brought a storm of applause from the "fans."

In the seventh it looked like the Cubs had warmed up and after Barry had been retired McCarthy singled to left. Slagle singled to center, but forced McCarthy at second a few moments later, when Tinker flied to center. In this inning for the Pittsburghs Phillipe went out on a fielder's choice and the following two men, Clymer and Clarke, failed to reach first.

In the ninth inning, with one out, Ritchey was flagged at first on a drive to middle. Peitz hit to left for two bases, but died there. Chicago got its run after two men had been retired in this inning. Brown, who brought in the run, struck out, but the last ball pitched and which he hit at, was far away from the plate, and Mordecai scurried to first, and, seeing that the catcher had not yet picked up the ball, kept going and reached second.

A two-sacker by Casey brought him in, and the next man up, Maloney, went out on a fly to Beaumont in center. The score:

WHAT IS LATE AT COLLEGE AND SCHOOL

Lawrenceville school Saturday defeated Central High in a dual track meet, Philadelphia, 63 to 41. Rector broke the Lawrenceville school record in the 220-yard dash, in :22 1-5, and equaled the record in the 100-yard, winning in 10 seconds flat.

In the final trial heats for the selection of Bucknell's relay team the following men won places: Capt. Marsh, '05; Gaskill, '06; Davis, '07, and Grey, '08. Although no official announcement of the time was made, it was stated that the men averaged a second faster than last year.

In the final tryouts Chicago selected Groman, Quigley, Lightbody and Blair for the relay team to compete at the Pennsylvania games next Saturday.

Michigan's four-mile relay team for the Pennsylvania meet was selected Saturday in a one-mile competition race. The rule was surprising in more ways than one, Rowe, the interscholastic mile champion of Michigan, won easily in 4:31 4-5, which beats Michigan's outdoor record by 1 1-5 seconds. Doane, who was a member of last year's champion team, faltered and was done for at the 1,000-yard mark, owing to the hot pace set by Ramey, who is really a half-miler. Stone, a veteran, finished second, and Coe, followed by Ramey, came in third. Coe has done a mile in 4:29. The team will in consequence consist of Rowe, Stone, Coe and Ramey. The time by quarters Saturday was 1:00, 1:09, 1:14, 1:08 4-5. Rowe finished ten yards ahead of Stone, and 30 ahead of Coe, who was leading Ramey by five yards. All four of the men did 4:35 or better.

Herb. Byram hit his home run against Georgetown in the third inning. Don Doyle made a double in the ninth and scored on a wild throw. His wallop would have been a home run also had it not hit a tree.

Manager Davis of the W. & J. nine was in Pittsburgh yesterday. He said Ramsay is putting up a great game at shortstop.

The Allegheny Prep. team will open its season with the Sewickley High school team on the latter's grounds tomorrow afternoon.

Prep.'s game with Allegheny High school for last Friday was postponed on account of rain.

USE BAD MONEY IN DOING GOOD

The Rev. U. S. Greves Offers Object Lesson to Rockefeller and Carnegie.

FINANCIAL TRICKS ARE OLD

Taking for his sermon topic, "Jesus and Riches," the Rev. U. S. Greves of the Forty-third Street Presbyterian church declared last evening that modern finance was a thing of old, that "monopolies, cornering the market, puts and calls" and other practices, "are as old as the hills." He offered as a cure for "the dangers of wealth," its proper distribution, and declared that the best thing to do with "bad money" is to make good use of it. Proper application of one's self, he contended, such as shown in the life of Christ, would "enrich the world in a way that even a Rockefeller or a Carnegie never dreamed of." Taking for his text St. Luke xvi:11, "If, therefore, ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?" and said in part:

The many vexed questions now under discussion are not a new thing in the world. The form of the problems and the circumstances surrounding them may be different, but the problems are the same. Speculation, monopolies, cornering the market, deals in futures, options, margins, puts and calls, the vanity and folly of the rich, the folly and envy of the poor, oppression, robbery and sharp practice are as old as the hills, and will continue in some degree till the crack of doom.

It was for an obscure carpenter of Nazareth, who owned no wealth, uneducated in any school of political economy, to lay down principles concerning riches which are today working like leaven in the conscience of Christendom, and which alone can save the world from the direst problems raised by men and money. What, then, did this Nazarene teach?

Jesus did not condemn the right of private ownership. He did not, as some radical social reformers claim, teach that a man must not accumulate. Texts of scripture so interpreted are torn from their context, or considered apart from other teaching of Jesus with which they should be considered—both methods a prolific scource of Bible misinterpretation. On the contrary, Jesus recognized that men sometimes became rich through force of circumstances. His own disciples owned boats, nets, houses, and Jesus was often entertained in homes of luxury, against the ownership of which He uttered no protest.

Jesus recognized the perils of excessive wealth and warned men against them. He speaks of their intense grip on the affections, refers to the deceitfulness of riches, warns men against the spirit of covetousness, declares that trust in them makes it impossible for a man to trust and serve God, and gives the rich man something to think about when He says that it is possible for God to save even a rich man.

Jesus taught men a way to avoid the dangers of wealth. The safety valve is wise and generous giving. A man is the steward, not the owner, of God's gifts. He is the administrator of God's estate. So regarded, a man's wealth cannot harm himself or his neighbor. The toughest problems of modern finance would yield instantly to a successful solution if men, rich or poor, would accept this principle of Jesus.

What use should be made of money unlawfully got? The teaching of this parable seems to be that the best thing to do with bad money (so-called) is to make a good use of it. Eugene Field's story of the man who sold his soul to the devil for a stated salary touches the point. With the devil's money he built himself a good home, built churches, built hospitals and made himself so generally obnoxious to his master that his Satanic majesty was glad to break the contract.

Jesus taught that true riches is not money, that it cannot buy happiness, and that the test of character is the use a man makes of his money. Faithful in that, he will be faithful in greater things. Such faithfulness the life of Jesus Himself illustrated—though possessor of not a place to lay His head, He has enriched the world in a way that not even a Rockefeller or Carnegie ever dreamed.

Bells of Church Are Blessed.

KITTANNING, April 23.—(Special.)—The bells of the new Trinity Catholic church, Ford City, were blessed today. The Rev. Father Baldauf of St. Mary's church, Ford City, performed the ceremony. He was assisted by other priests.

PROOF SUSTAINS RESURRECTION

The Rev. Dr. E. H. Ward Says Evidence Will Hold in Any Court of Law.

TELLS OF ITS POWER IN WORLD

"The Power of the Resurrection," was the sermon subject of the Rev. Dr. E. H. Ward, in the pulpit of St. Peter's Protestant Episcopal church, Forbes street and Craft avenue, yesterday morning. Dr. Ward quoted legal authorities for the statement that sufficient evidence of the resurrection is given in the Bible to make its contention stand in any court of law, and speaking from the standpoint of the resurrection being an established fact, Dr. Ward told of the various powers it has had in the history of humanity. Taking for his text, Phil. iii:9, "That I may know Him and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His suffering," he said in part:

The man who offers this prayer had not always been a believer in the fact of the resurrection. For two years he had been the bitterest persecutor which the infant church at Jerusalem ever knew. When his work had been fully accomplished he started for Damascus to make an end of the church in that city. On the way he was arrested in his mad career. He seen the risen Lord, heard His voice, and asked: "Lord, what wilt Thou have me to do?" From that moment he became the devoted apostle of Jesus Christ, spent his life in preaching the faith which once he had sought to destroy, and some 30 years afterward, in a Roman prison, he breathed the prayer, "That I may know Him and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings."

The resurrection of Jesus Christ we assume to be a fact. The evidence for it, direct and indirect, is such that it cannot scarcely be doubted. Greenleaf, an acknowledged authority on evidence, has carefully examined the testimony of the witnesses and declares that it would stand in any court of law. The present chief justice of the supreme court said in a contribution to a New York newspaper that the testimony was entirely satisfactory to him.

But the indirect evidence is still stronger. Assume that Jesus Christ did not rise, and then attempt to account for the 1800 years of Christian history. The Christian church is built on a falsehood, for the resurrection is the foundation fact. All that is best in the world's civilization today is the result of preaching of Jesus Christ. So if the resurrection is a falsehood, then not only is falsehood stronger than truth, but it has been productive of better results. Truth and falsehood must change places in the estimation of men. As this would land us in permanent intellectual confusion, we are still ready to proclaim our belief in the resurrection. Assuming the resurrection to be a fact, let us note what the apostle calls its power.

Let us look at the power of the resurrection in relation to sin. The evidences of sin are all around us. It fills our jails and penitentiaries. It is the despair of the statesman, unless his heart be filled with boundless hope. We are conscious of its awful influences in our own lives. Like the psalmist, we find that there are hours when our sins take such hold upon us that we cannot look up. The rightness of things is against us. How can we be assured that this condition will ever be changed? In Jesus we behold the Lamb of God who "taketh away the sins of the world." But it is the empty tomb that assures us of the triumph of the crop. "He was delivered for our offenses and rose again for our justification." It is because He who was crucified is now the crowned king of the universe.

Look at the power of the resurrection in relation to suffering. "Man that is born of woman is of few days and full of trouble." Could you hear at this moment the cries of pain ascending from the sufferers in this city; cuold you hear the sobs arising from all the broken hearts, you would be appalled. What does it all mean? Apart from the incarnation, the cross and the resurrection, I have no answer. But when I see the sinless Son of God, a man of sorrow and acquainted with grief; when I see Him made perfect by suffering, and for the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor, pain and suffering are transfigured. Then I see that the only real crowns men wear in this world are crowns of thorns. Then I see that the favored sons of men are not those who are exempt from pain and suffering, but rather those who, with the heaviest crosses, are climbing earth's Calvaries. Then I can join in the prayer of the apostle, "That I may know Him and the power of His resurrection."

Its power in relation to death? Here in this world we see life and death engaged in perpetual struggle, and death always the victor. On the granite sides of the mountain the geologist reads the record on the rocks of triumphant death millions of years ago. All vegetation and animal life has gone down before him. All the sons of men have obeyed his summons. No one has ever come back from the unseen world with tidings from that realm of shadows. But Jesus Christ met death on a fair field of battle and conquered him. From that invisible world He says to us, "I am He that liveth and was dead, and behold I am alive forevermore and have the keys of death and hades." Over every foot of territory in that unseen world floats the banner of our risen king. Death, too, is His servant, and comes to us only at His bidding. He comes to call in from the burden and heat of the day to "the rest that remaineth for the people of God."

LOCAL PASTOR TALKS UPON SPIRITUALISM

The Rev. Dr. S. Edward Young Takes Serious View on Psychic Phenomena.

Under the sermon title of "Latest Proofs of the Resurrection from Psychic Phenomena," the Rev. Dr. S. Edward Young took a serious view of spiritualism from the pulpit of the Second Presbyterian church, Eighth street, yesterday morning. Dr. Young admitted that he had not experienced anything that would be persuasive in psychic phenomena, but cited the fact that communication with spirits had been taken seriously by at least 100 of the foremost intellects in recent generations. He said in part:

Concerning possible new proofs of the Resurrection, I now venture upon dangerous ground, but I am held by the conviction that investigators are on the verge of demonstrating the existence of the soul after death by the scientific study of psychic phenomena. The word spiritualism needs fumigation after such long association with knavery, supersition and semilunacy, but the central proposition of spiritualism—that the spirits of the departed can and sometimes do communicate with the living—is beginning to command the respect of sober men and every year more and more coolheaded people approve Gladstone's assertion that this line of investigation "is the most important work that is being done in the world—by far the most important."

Alas that so many unsteady minds have over-believed spiritualism, and—as is apt to be the case with excessive belief in a new creed—being disappointed, have turned rank infidels. Nevertheless, the reports of the Society for Psychical Research and the vast array of authenticated cases presented in books like F. W. H. Myers' monumental work on "Personality" leave the old sneer at revisits from the dead less and less to say for itself.

I have never myself experienced anything I could consider persuasive along this line and have never specially studied psychic phenomena. The scientific investigations now published are my chief reason for expecting that some Easter morning the pulpits will thunder with fresh proofs corroborating the New Testament declarations concerning life after death. Communication between the spirits of the departed and the living have been accepted as a fact by at least 100 of the foremost intellects of the past two or three generations, including Bulwer Lytton, Alfred Tennyson, Elizabeth Barrett Browning, Queen Victoria, Napoleon Bonaparte, Abraham Lincoln, Victor Hugo, Thackeray, Bayard Taylor, Camille Flammarion, Whittier and scores more in every field of thought.

Rash and probably blasphemous it would be to suppose that knowledge gained through psychic investigations could ever take the place of or render less solemn and momentous Christ's resurrection. Till time be no more of Him only shall it be said: "He hath brought life and immortality to light through the Gospel."

Every Heart-Ache
Every pain in the breast, difficult breathing, palpitation, fluttering or dizzy spell means that your heart is straining itself in its effort to keep in motion. This is dangerous.
Some sudden strain from overexertion or excitement will completely exhaust the nerves, or rupture the walls or arteries of the heart, and it will stop.
Relieve this terrible strain at once with Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. It invigorates and strengthens the heart nerves and muscles, stimulates the heart action, and relieves the pain and misery.
Take no chances; make your heart strong and vigorous with Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.
"I suffered terribly with heart disease. I have been treated by different physicians for my trouble without results. I went to a physician in Memphis, who claimed that I had dropsy of the heart. He put the X-ray on me, and in connection with his medicine he came near making a finish of me. Some time before this a Mr. Young, of St. Louis, was in our town. He saw my condition, and recommended Dr. Miles' Heart Cure to me. I gave it little attention until my return from Memphis, when I concluded to try it, and am pleased to say three bottles cured me.
CHARLES GOODRICH, Caruthersville, Mo.
Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money.
